

Personals

(Nfld. Weekly.)
We were glad to welcome at the office of the "Weekly" recently.

Mr. Fleming, formerly of Harlow, Ontario, and Bay Roberts diocese, stationed at Peterboro, Ontario, and gentleman left Newfoundland about forty years ago. He is now a well earned vacation and will shortly visit Newfoundland where he has several relatives including a brother, John, and a sister, Mrs. Patrick.

Mr. Hurley, formerly of Bay Roberts, came to Boston, 28 years ago and is doing well in the real estate business. His wife was Anna Culliton of Bay Roberts. They have a family of four boys. Mr. Hurley has not been to the homeland since he left, but hopes to visit it before very long.

Mrs. Margaret Coady and her daughter, Miss Susie Coady, of Woonsocket, R. I. Mrs. Coady, nee Kennebec, was born in Trepassey and came to the U. S. thirty-six years ago, and she plans to make her visit to her home in August.

Mr. George Dawe, J.P., the well known business man of Port de Grave, is spending a few days in Boston. Mr. Dawe left Newfoundland last week on a visit to his daughter in Boston and then proceeded to New York and Boston. He reports very favorable conditions at home and is very optimistic about the outlook for the country. This was Mr. Dawe's first visit to the U.S.A., and he enjoyed his trip and his many friends were glad to see him. He left on Sunday for Halifax to connect with the S. S. Halifax for St. John's.

Mr. George Hampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hampton, of Port de Grave, returned to Boston about two months ago after spending the winter at home.

Mr. P. P. O'Neill, of Roxbury, and formerly of St. John's, left Boston on the Sechen last Saturday with a party of five American ladies who are planning to visit Newfoundland. Mrs. O'Neill was instrumental in introducing Newfoundland as a summer vacation resort to several American ladies last year and accompanied the party. This year, too, she is conducting more sightseers to the Old Dominion.

Mr. Harry Hiscock, son of Wm. J. Hiscock of Brigus. Mr. Hiscock is an R.R. man and served overseas during the war he came to the U.S.A. and is now located in Hartford, Conn., where he is employed with the Connecticut Street Railway Co.

Mr. J. S. Kelly, formerly of Brigus, who has been in this country for the last nine years. He is engaged in the furniture moving business in Quincy and operates his own motor trucks. His mother, Mrs. James Kelly, resides with him in Quincy.

Mr. Fred Ackerman, son of Mr. Geo. Ackerman of Brigus. He left Newfoundland about six years ago and is employed at the shipbuilding works in Port de Grave.

Mr. Harry Martin, of Brighton, and formerly of Port de Grave, who left Newfoundland 25 years ago. He holds a high position in the construction work in Boston and superintends construction work for large contracting firms. He is at present in charge of the construction line work for Coleman Bros., who are building the new hotel from Andrew Square to Neponset.

About ten days ago whilst he and his family were returning from the beach on the 15th anniversary of his wedding, a speeding motor car collided with Mr. Martin's car and demolished it. Mrs. Martin and two children were badly shaken up, but fortunately no serious persons' damage was sustained. Mrs. Martin was formerly Miss Isabel Curlew of Brigus.

On Monday, Mr. Martin received the news of the death of his father, John T. Martin, at Port de Grave.

Mr. William G. Bussey, formerly of Port de Grave, who left Newfoundland 22 years ago. Mr. Bussey is in the shipping department of Jordan Marsh Co. and has been with them for the past twelve years. He is planning to visit his old home in August.

Mr. Patrick J. Brown, formerly of St. John's, and a resident of South Boston for 27 years. Mr. Brown is in the wholesale tobacco trade with his brother, Thomas Brown, of Broadway, South Boston, where they have established a fine trade. He leaves to-day on the Muncaster on his first visit to the homeland.

Mrs. Eastman, daughter of the late Martin Walsh, of Waterford Bridge Road, who has been residing in Dorchester for the past few years.

Mr. George E. Bennett, formerly of Carleton Place, who left Newfoundland in 1901. For several years Mr. Bennett was in the employ of the General Electric Company, at Lynn, and now holds a good position with the United Shoe Company. He lives in Beverly, Mass.
