

Guelph Evening Mercury

OFFICE.....MADONNELL STREET.

MONDAY EVENG. DECEMBER 2.

Hudson's Bay Territory.

The Hon. Mr. McDougall is of opinion that the extension of the limits of Canada westward as far as the Pacific Ocean would be beneficial, and we find him accordingly prepared to move a series of resolutions to effect the extension. Perhaps he believes still further that a scheme for enlarging the boundaries of the new Dominion would be popular, and with such a man as Mr. McDougall popularity is a great thing, no opportunity of acquiring which should be missed. But in bringing forward resolutions for the admission of the North-west as an integral part of Canada as now constituted, the honourable gentleman is only fulfilling a vow, for the performance of which he pledged his word and honour, and other members in supporting him in this instance would only be redeeming the promises, that it might not be too much to say, every one of them made before their constituents at the recent elections. All right; the Red River Territory is a very wide-stretching and very fertile tract of country, and if Canadians do not extend their favors to it, Mr. Seward, in his passion for investment in landed property, may offer the people generous terms, and consolidate their country into the vast domains of the United States. Such a thing has actually been talked of, and it would not be matter for amazement if the specious promises of the oily Secretary of State should—unless counter-action be quickly taken—seduce from their allegiance British subjects, who have too long been, not only neglected but abused by the Government of Britain. If we are to credit the rumours current concerning their government, it is one of the most extravagant, and consequently the most oppressive, that ever perpetrated the mal-administration of the affairs of a free people.—The remedy for the evils which there exist, Mr. McDougall proposes to find in the establishing of political institutions on the model of those of the new Dominion. The "legal rights of any corporation, company or individual within Rupert's Land, or the North-west territory," every person will of course understand to be merely a mild synonym for the "monopoly of the Hudson's Bay Company," but it nevertheless appears that the rights, legal or illegal, just or unjust, which these foes of human progress have enjoyed ever since the days of that King of England, who "never said a foolish thing and never did a wise one," are to be religiously regarded. It is a question which would perhaps be better decided by the casuist than the journalist, why priority of possession should be a stronger reason with the Hudson Bay Company against the surrender of their claims, to the exclusion of civilization, and the extension of agriculture than it is with the Indians. How much are they better? or will any one have the hardihood to assert that the necessities of poverty must be ignored on demand of the caprice of opulence? Yet we imagine that no serious objections will be offered to the compromise which Mr. McDougall proposes to make with this avaricious corporation, provided the government do not admit of extravagant demands, or offer lavishly generous concessions. It would be worth a trifle to be able promptly and peaceably to answer the appeals for aid of an oppressed people, and to prove by the grateful voice of thousands that it is iniquity to retain as a game preserve the land on which with ordinary labour, villages and towns may proudly flourish, and heavy golden grain may wave in the autumn breeze. If the resolutions are carried in their present form "a select committee will be appointed to draft a humble address to Her Majesty on the subject." Go on Mr. McDougall, and prosper, and if you should succeed in making fair terms with the Company and in annexing the North-west, there will be something to place to the credit side of your account, something that will cover a multitude of your past transgressions.

FIRE AT CHATHAM.—On Friday night last about eleven o'clock a fire broke out in Chatham, and a strong wind prevailing the flames were not subdued until a whole block of buildings had been destroyed. The fire originated in a grocery store. A large number of people have had their houses of business burned down. Most of the stocks were saved except those near the shop in which the fire originated.

Hudson Bay Territory.

The following are the resolutions to be moved by Mr. McDougall this (Monday) evening on the above subject.

1. That it would promote the prosperity of the Canadian people and conduce to the advantage of the whole empire, if the Dominion of Canada, constituted under the provisions of the British North American Act 1867, were extended westward to the shores of the Pacific Ocean.
2. That colonization of the lands of the Saskatchewan, Assiniboine, and the Red River districts, and the development of the mineral wealth which abounds in the regions of the North-west, and the extension of the commercial intercourse through the British possessions in America from the Atlantic to the Pacific, are alike dependent upon the establishment of a stable government for the maintenance of law and order in the North-west territories.
3. That the welfare of the sparsely widely scattered population of British subjects of European origin, already inhabiting these remote and unorganized territories, would be materially enhanced by the formation therein of political institutions bearing analogy, as far as circumstances will admit, to those which exist in the several provinces of this Dominion.
4. That the 146th section of the British North American Act, 1867, provides for the admission of Rupert's Land and the North-west territory, or either of them, into union with Canada upon terms and conditions to be expressed in addresses from the Houses of Parliament of this Dominion to Her Majesty, and which shall be approved of by the Queen in council.
5. That it is accordingly expedient to address Her Majesty, that she would be graciously pleased, and with advice of her most Privy Council, to unite Rupert's Land and the North West territory with the Dominion of Canada, and to grant to the Parliament of Canada authority to legislate for their future welfare and good government.
6. That in the event of the Imperial government agreeing to transfer to Canada the jurisdiction and control over this region, it would be expedient to provide that the legal rights of any corporation, company, or individual, within the same, will be respected and that in case of difference of opinion as to the extent nature or value of these rights, the same shall be submitted to judicial decision, or be determined by mutual agreement between the government of Canada and the parties interested.
7. That upon the transference of the territories in question to the Canadian government, the claims of the Indian tribes to compensation for lands required for purposes of settlement, would be considered and settled in conformity with the equitable principles which have uniformly governed the Crown in its dealings with the aborigines.
8. That a select committee be appointed to draft a humble address to Her Majesty on the subject of the foregoing resolutions.
