UND "HORSE-SENSE"

he Canadian Farmer is Out of Pocket.

nent Horse Buyer's Opinion—Canadian Farmer Pays the City on the Horse Shipped to the States.

rdis, of Boston, shipped two carloads of horses from here to the United States a week ago. The animals were collected in Ontario—London Free Press.

ove hardly bears out the oft-exaggerated claims of the Free Press that the Canadian market is utterly unexplored. However, it is quite different from the trade relations, and as he is the most prominent horse buyer in the Province of Ontario he knew whereof he speaks.

a good many Canadian horses for to the United States," he told an reporter the other day, "and not for the nonsensical tariff wall, and a good many more. The Canadian farmer loses $20 every horse he sells; in other words there is no tariff between the States I could pay the man from my pocket the extra amount 'goes into the customer's pocket.' Now I have to deduct the amount from the money I pay him, simply nonsense to talk about the loss of the American market to Canada, and how so many of them utter rubbish is more than I can utter.
