Dickinson, Wingham, Conservative candidate for the riding; Thos. Farrow, ex-M.P., and John Money and James Irwin, of Brussels; District Master John Donaghy and ex-County Master Henry Parkins. An address was presented to Mr. Wallace, congratulating him on the ascendancy of Orangeism in the Cabinet at Ottawa. The Sovereign Grand Master's response folowed the example of the address in its evasion of the political question which was in the minds of the audience, the Manitoba school question, and because it did so some Orange stalwarts were not pleased. That was the subject which was looked for, and it was to hear the Sovereign Grand Master's views upon it that many of those present attended. Mr. Walace said: "What we object to is the thrusting of the hierarchy of the Roman Catholic Church into the public affairs of the country. We do not believe that those people have any right to thrust themselves into or interfere with the affairs of Canada. It was only a few months ago that we had the letter of the Bishop of Nicolet, in which he boasted of having conspired to interfere, and he claimed successfuly, with the course of justice. He claimed that he successfully sub-verted the course of justice in the highest tribunal in the empire. I do means they resort to to attain their

CHUSETTS. Boston, Mass., Nov. 6.—The complexion of the Massachusetts Legislature Senate, 33 Republicans, 7 Democrats, a Democratic gain of one; House of Representatives, 184 Republicans, 55 Democrats, a Democratic gain of S. Louisville, Ky., Nov. 6.—The story of yesterday in Kentucky was very much like that of a year ago. It was something in the nature of caother land-slide. Old Democratic strongholds have gone Republican, while others have suffered a serious diminution of their accustomed majorities. The returns from over 80 counties, including Jefferson, give Bradley a lead of about 4,000. Among the counties not reported are some that are strongly Democratic and others are strongly Republican. Omaha, Neb., Nov. 6.—Norval, the Republican candidate for the Suprema Court of Justice, has defeated Maxwell, the Populist, by over 20,000. No other officers were elected in Nebraska
