THE CANADA NATIONAL

Without Any Amendment.

Premier Laurier Says Parliament Has the Right to Expropriate Any Railway and Hints at the Future.

Ottawa, March 25 .- The opposition to the Canada National Railway and Transportation Company's bill was renewed in the House of Commons today, when the bill was under consideration in committee of the whole. Mr. E. F. Clarke moved an amendment, providing for the expropriation and the reduction of the subsidies paid to the company from the purchase price. Lieut.-Col. Hughes offered a second amendment to deduct the amount of municipal bon-uses also and refund the same to the municipalities. Both amendments were ost, and the bill stands for third reading. The remainder of the day was occupied by the budget debate. adjournment it was arranged that the division upon Mr. Borden's amendment will be taken on Thursday.

MARINE DEPARTMENT BILLS. Sir Louis Davies introduced three departmental bills-a bill to amend the inland waters seamen's act, a bill to amend the act respecting the safety of ships, and a bill respecting inquiries and investigations into shipping casualties.

Mr. Richardson (Lisgar) introduced a bill to amend the railway act. It is in line with suggestion several times made in the railway committee, to give the governor-general-in-council power to expropriate any railway at a valuation, from which shall be deducted the amount of any bonus or subsidy granted by the Dominion Parliament. THE CANADA NATIONAL.

The bill to incorporate the Canada National Railway and Transport Company was taken up in committee. Owing to Mr. Mclean's objection to the title Canada National being appropriated by a private company, it was agreed to amend the title on the third reading of the bill.

Mr. E. F. Clarke moved the amendment, of which he gave notice the other day, empowering the governorgeneral-in-council to expropriate the whole concern at any time, at a valu-tion, less the amount of bonus or subsidy paid by the Dominion government. He explained that this would prevent the road from falling into the hands of either of the two existing roads be-tween the points covered by the proposed charter. Col. Sam Hughes moved in amendment to the amendment that should the government take over the road, bonuses paid by municipalities be re-

In the discussion which followed Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that there was no occasion to insert in this bill a clause providing for expropriation, as clause providing for expropriation, as parliament has the right to expropriate any railway. They could pass a bill tomorrow to expropriate the C. P. R. or any railway. He did not know but that the time might come that Mr. Maclean pined for, when the government would control all the railways, when we would have government ownership of railways. He was ment ownership of railways. He was not prepared for that today, but some day we might come to that conclusion. It had been done in other countries. Then the method of expropriation would have to be considered. In expropriating a house it was valued at its present value, so that a building that might have cost $100,000 might be expropriated for $40,000. Parliament would have to constant which is the constant with the const
