RUSH TO THE WEST MAKES BIG PROBLEM FOR CHURCHES

Anglican Synod Will Have Very Important Matters to Discuss in Regard to Dealing With the New Foreign Population.

[Canadian Press.]
Winnipeg, Aug. 27.—Delegates are here from all over the western dioceses for the opening today of the triennial Anglican Provincial Synod, which meets in two sections of the House of Bishops and the House of Delegates, the former being private.

This synod is likely to prove historic in the development of the Anglican Church of Western Canada. The progress of the west in material things presents its demands to the church and calls for important readjustments. Resolutions will be presented on behalf of the two dioceses of Rupert's Land and Calgary asking for their division. Another reflection of the peculiar problem of the west is furnished by the resolution of Principal Lloyd to the effect that the synod increasing foreignization of Canada, and asking that an effort should be made to discourage this influx of non-British and non-English stock.

A pastoral address will be delivered by Archbishop Matthew, primate of all Canada, to the assembled clergy and laity at St. John's Cathedral tomorrow morning.

Among those present will be the Bishops of Qu'Appelle, Calgary, Saskatchewan, Kootenai, Athabasca, Yukon and McLeod, besides the deans, archdeacons, canons and leading clergy of the various dioceses and representative laymen.

WANTED FOR FRAUD

Elk Organizers Alleged to Have Skipped With $15,000.

[Canadian Press.]

Winnipeg, Aug. 26.—Harry C. Kelley, who organized an Elk lodge in Winnipeg, is badly wanted here by the Elk executive committee to explain some financial transactions. A warrant has been issued at Fort Frances charging his partner, J. L. Hargrove, with obtaining money under false pretences. Kelley and Hargrove were seen last week in Toronto, said to be en route to Montreal. When officers visited the Kelley home today they discovered it had been vacated Saturday. Mrs. Kelley said she was going to Buffalo. It is estimated that these Elk organizers took $15,000 from Winnipeg, Estevan, Regina, Brandon, Selkirk and Fort Frances. It is thought they are now in the States. Kelley was in jail in Cheyenne, Wyo., for robbing box cars, and was twice arrested here for fraud, but each time escaped conviction.

Bailiffs Are After Jack Johnson Now

May Prevent His Appearing on the Stage in London.

London, Aug. 27.—The Standard says the prospect of Jack Johnson, the American negro pugilist, appearing in London is becoming daily less hopeful. An unexpected incident has seriously affected the fighter's plans. This was the sudden appearance on Monday night at the house in Baywater, where Johnson is staying, of a number of bailiffs sent by a firm of solicitors, who got judgment for $7,500 damages for breach of contract against the pugilist the last time he was here. Johnson then broke his engagements with some of the NacNaughten syndicate music halls and skipped to Paris. MacNaughten then got the judgment against him.

The bailiffs stayed at Johnson's house all night, but a conference on Tuesday morning resulted in a settlement.

Rev. F. B. Meyer, formerly president of the Baptist Alliance, who has been fighting against Johnson's appearance here, says he has now received Johnson's invitation to call on him and discuss various matters in the presence of newspaper men. Johnson, however, conferred with another renowned opponent, Dr. A. J. Waldron, who, after a serious attack with the negro, said he was impressed by Johnson's simplicity and honesty, but agrees with Rev. Meyer that if Johnson wants to stand right in England he must return to America and face the music.
