Minister of Public Works Says He Will Reply in Good Time.

TORONTO, June 8 .- Hon. F. C. Piggs, Ontario minister of public works, has sent a formal declination to a challenge from Gordon C. Wilson, M.P., Went worth, who invited the minister to debate the question of road improvements made in the vicinity of Mr. Biggs' home in Weni worth County, the debate to be public and an admission fee of 25 cents charged. Hon. Mr. Biggs, in his reply to Mr. Wilson, takes the ground that no good purpose would be served by such a debate, but says he will reply to the statements "when he may have occasion to do so."

"It was your own choice to make a series of gross exaggerations and misstatements on the floor of the House of Commons," Mr. Biggs says in his reply. "I have already answered your statements in part, and shall reply to them further in any part of my constituency." bate the question of road improvements
