CEREMONIAL AT CORONATION

Arrangements in connection with the coronation of King George and Queen Mary are now practically settled.

PARTS TO BE TAKEN BY ARCHBISHOP

Religious observances combined with survival of ancient Teutonic customs, Robing and Anointing.

LONDON, April 15.—Dressed with the coronation of King George and Queen Mary are now practically settled. The actual coronation ceremony will be performed by the Archbishop of Canterbury, while the Archbishop of York will preach the coronation sermon. The coronation will take place in the Abbey, and the King and Queen will be seated on chairs of state on the south side of the altar. The King will be crowned by the Archbishop of Canterbury, and the Queen will be crowned by the Archbishop of York. The coronation will be a grand and magnificent occasion, and will be witnessed by thousands of people.

Next comes the Litany, which is a prayer for the King and Queen, and is followed by the anointing of the King and Queen. The anointing is a very ancient custom, and is performed by the Archbishop of Canterbury. The King and Queen will then be crowned, and the coronation will be complete.

Then follows the anointing of the King and Queen, which is a very ancient custom, and is performed by the Archbishop of Canterbury. The King and Queen will then be crowned, and the coronation will be complete.

After the anointing, the King and Queen will be crowned, and the coronation will be complete. The King will be crowned by the Archbishop of Canterbury, and the Queen will be crowned by the Archbishop of York. The coronation will be a grand and magnificent occasion, and will be witnessed by thousands of people.

The placing of the orb with cries of "God Save the King" and "God Save the Queen" will complete the coronation.

The placing of the orb with cries of "God Save the King" and "God Save the Queen" will complete the coronation.
