Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King Gets Great Reception at Campbellton Tuesday Night

TOWN COUNCIL AFTER SUBWAY

Special Meeting Called to Discuss Matter—Resolution Adopted.

A special meeting of the Town Council was held Wednesday evening, Oct. 20, His Worship Mayor McKay presiding. Couns. Duncanson, Moore, Blissett, Wallace, St. Onge and Bellisle were present.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted: That this Council request the Canadian National Railway authorities to provide at the earliest possible date (this fall if at all possible) a subway and approaches to same between Patterson and Union streets north of Central street. The said subway to be a continuation of said Central street and that the width of said subway be not less than sixty feet with separate passages for each sidewalk, on the same plan as the Moncton subway.

In view of relieving the unemployment problem in this town to a certain extent, this Council strongly urges the railway authorities to erect said subway during the present fall. Following up the above a strong letter signed by the Mayor was forwarded to the railway authorities and it is sincerely hoped that work on this very necessary subway will be undertaken at an early date.

CHAIRMAN KELLY SAYS THANK YOU

Word of Cheer and Encouragement to Temperance Workers Here.

As chairman of the Local Branch of the Temperance Alliance I sincerely thank each member of the Alliance, who contributed to our most inspiring victory at the polls on the 10th inst. In thanking the Alliance for the splendid work done in our own midst, I also seek to congratulate temperance workers throughout the town and county for the latent energy in our midst, ready to spring to life at the call of moral reform. Two or three men probably inspired at the same source say, "Oh! it is only a woman's victory." I say, thank God for the women. And let me say women of Campbellton, keep your hand ready for the good work. The boys and girls for whom you worked so effectively are yours, and you will be asked to account for them.

I sincerely thank all assisting parties to the great work for their sympathy and support. You did fine!
M. A. KELLY,
Chairman.

BIG SPACE AGAIN WINS OUT

Graphic Advertising Had Most Gratifying Results in Sales.

In the Graphic's issue of Oct. 6th, a full page advertisement of The Central Book Store (J. & E. Cantin) appeared.

A special sale of phonographs was offered and every instrument, cabinet etc., was promptly sold (24 in all). If this does not prove the true value of big space display advertising, we know of nothing that does or will. If the proof of the pudding is the chemical analysis thereof! The remunerative proof of advertising is also proven again—ask Cantin's!

GIRLS' CONFERENCE

Miss Mary Allison was in town last week for a few days the guest of Mrs. Max Mowat. Miss Allison is the Girls' Work Secretary of the Maritime Religious Council. The purpose of her visit was in connection with organization of the Girls' Conference to be held here Nov. 4-6, simultaneously with the Girls' Boys' to be in session at that time. This will be the first Girls' Conference held in Campbellton.

For the presentation of the Canadian Girls in Training Programme. This twice programme for boys, having the same ideal of four-fold development and being promoted co-operatively by the Anglican, Presbyterian, Methodist and Baptist denominations.

Skating Rink Crowded With Attentive Ratepayers Who Heard Liberal Chief and Other Speakers on the Issues of the Campaign.

Without exception the Liberal rally held in the skating rink here Tuesday evening, and addressed by Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King and other Liberal speakers, was the greatest political demonstration ever held on the north shore.

From all quarters electors came in to town by train or auto and when the meeting opened, the big rink which had been comfortably seated with benches, was filled and many stood along the premises and galleries. It is estimated that there were nearly three thousand people assembled. The best of order prevailed throughout the meeting the different speakers being attentively listened to.

Hon. Mr. King and his party, among whom were Hon. C. W. Robinson, Moncton, Hon. P. J. Veniot, Bathurst; Hon. J. E. Michaud, Edmundston; O. Turgeon, Bathurst and others arrived by the Ocean Limited at 7:30.

The Campbellton band and a tremendous concourse of citizens were at the depot to welcome them and escort them to the hotel and later to the rink.

At 8:15 Mr. A. T. LeBlanc, who had been chosen chairman opened the meeting. In a few remarks he thanked the people for their interest, explained Hon. Mr. Mackenzie's absence and introduced the speakers. He stated that at a large and enthusiastic Liberal convention held at St. Leonard's on the 14th inst. at which a very large delegation from Restigouche was present, the unanimous choice of a candidate to represent the Liberals had been Pius Michaud, who had been their representative since 1917. No doubt in the near future at another election, a Restigouche man will be chosen the standard bearer. In conclusion he asked for the loyal support of Mr. Michaud on Dec. 6th so that his majority would be even greater than in 1917. Mr. Michaud was then introduced and was greeted with applause.

Pius Michaud

Mr. Michaud thanked the audience for the flattering reception tendered him. He thanked the electors of Restigouche-Madawaska who had come to do honor to our leader, and the next Premier of Canada, Hon. Mr. King. He (Mr. Michaud) had been chosen by a very large and representative convention of the Liberals of the constituency and he felt sure of success. There was no split in the Liberal party. The Conservatives were scheming to make a split but they, (the Liberals) were wise to the game. Even if the Conservatives could put a candidate in the field he felt sure the result would be the same as in 1917. We are prepared for their tricks and tactics.

To the ladies he said that he was willing to leave his case in their hands and felt sure of their support and their support of the great Liberal principles. In conclusion he asked all to give him a vote on Dec. 6th and thanked the audience for their patience and applause.

Hon. C. W. Robinson

Hon. C. W. Robinson was the next speaker. He was given a great reception and made a rousing appeal to all electors who were interested in this great Canada to vote for a change. Canada he likened to a sick patient and the Conservative leader as the doctor. The patient was showing no improvement and it was felt that a change of doctors was advisable and suggested that we try a specialist.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King—Applause. He spoke interestingly of railway matters and suggested that if we in the maritime provinces were to regain control and the management of the Intercolonial railway it would be necessary to send from almost every constituency in these provinces supporters of Mr. King—Applause.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King

The chairman then introduced the speaker of the evening, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King. He was given a tremendous ovation and when he appeared after a round of applause.

Hon. Mr. King said that he was indeed flattered by his reception at Campbellton. It was one of the greatest meetings he had addressed in his

HON. W. L. MACKENZIE KING.

Hon. Mr. Meighen had remarked that he could see a wave mounting which would carry his party into power. Well he had not been able to distinguish that wave, but what he heard was the roar of a mighty ocean, which is the voice of public opinion and this would wash the Meighen party into oblivion.

The speaker paid a tribute to the worth of Mr. Pius Michaud and asked for the support of all for him on Dec. 6th. He also spoke feelingly of Mr. O. Turgeon of Gloucester who was also present, and suggested that Gloucester County would do honor to itself by sending so worthy a representative back to parliament by acclamation—Applause.

After these preliminaries Hon. Mr. King proceeded in a masterly way to discuss the issues of the campaign.

In 1917, the Hon. Mr. King pointed out, Canada had a general election. All at that time were bent on the aim of winning the war.

No consideration had been allowed to those domestic questions which affected the country, as no general election had been held. Mr. Meighen's right to the Premiership of Canada the speaker questioned. Mr. King asked: "Did he have any right to rule? Did anyone give him a mandate to rule? Who gave Mr. Meighen the right to shape the railway policies of this country?" asked the Liberal leader amid great applause. "Is there a man who gave him that right? The answer is silence." "If you return Premier Meighen and his colleagues, you forfeit autonomy and if you do not approve of his government, then you have your opportunity on December 6th."

While in Moncton and other maritime cities and Mr. King, the issue dealt with by Mr. Meighen had been protection versus free trade. In the discussion of such an issue, Mr. Meighen was arguing a question, the Liberal leader said, which was of his own creation. In the discussion of the tariff issue Mr. Meighen forgot the acts of his government. He defined Mr. Meighen's policies as being autocratic.

The Railway Issue

Turning to the railway issue, the Hon. Mr. King deprecated the policy adopted by the Meighen and Borden administrations. He pointed out that the Meighen government and Borden government had laid the blame for the deficits on Government railways on the Laurier government, but this was going along very well. The Laurier government had been the one to build the railway and the Laurier government had been the one to build the railway and the Laurier government had been the one to build the railway.

PIUS MICHAUD IS THE CHOICE

Largely Attended Convention Name Him As Liberal Standard Bearer.

The Liberal convention held at St. Leonard's last Friday was a most harmonious affair. Delegates were present from every parish in the two counties. A very large delegation went over from Campbellton.

When the meeting was called to order and the delegates got down to business there was only one name put in nomination, that of Pius Michaud.

Mr. Michaud was represented by Restigouche-Madawaska since 1917, and Victoria-Madawaska for some years.

PIUS MICHAUD.

Mr. Michaud made a fighting speech and it is the opinion of those who attended the convention that he will sweep the entire constituency.

can true advance and progress be attained and I ask you to join me in making that aim a splendid reality. "We have passed through the period of war into peace. We need, not only peace, but the spirit of peace. Let us seek that spirit as a substitute for the ill-will engendered by the war. It is only by goodwill that we can be a united country."

"I want to say this in conclusion, as a Canadian, as a British subject, that our first duty in this time of peace is to heal the wounds and scars of war and make our country happy, contented, and united. We promised the men who went overseas, who fought, who bled, or died, that they could expect this much of us. There was a solemn pledge made to them that they would never regret their following the vision splendid. Here and hereafter you shall see it fulfilled; we had promised. They fought that peace might come again and that ill-will would disappear. And it remains for us to keep that binding pledge."

"I say that that man, who deliberately attempts to stir up the flames of passion and prejudice is unjust to himself, unjust to the living and unjust to the memory of our sacred dead. Let us seek concord."

The war caused a great wave of age of human life, Hon. Mr. King declared. It bred autocracy into the government. It was for us to return to democracy of peace.

Hon. Mr. King closed by an appeal to the electors for unity of purpose on Dec. 6th, and thus return to Liberal principles—Great applause.

Hon. P. J. Veniot

Hon. P. J. Veniot was the next and last speaker. He was given a good reception and an attentive hearing. He spoke of the proposed Campbellton-Cross Point bridge to which his government was pledged and assured the meeting that if the Liberals were returned on Dec. 6th he would use his personal efforts to have Hon. Mr. King's government do their share. He predicted a Liberal sweep in the North Shore counties on the 6th of December.

The meeting came to a close with the singing of God Save the King and cheers for the Liberal leader and candidate.

SEASON FOR SETTING FIRES

The season is now open for setting fires near woodland without a permit. It is recommended that all necessary burning possible be done in the fall when the danger is least.
