There's something peculiarly refreshing and satisfying about this regular morning shave with a Gillette! It is so quick and easy—so clean and velvet-smooth—that you really enjoy the shave itself—and you get out in the morning looking and feeling your best. And such a start goes a long way toward a day you are glad to have lived!

If you haven't yet tried this way of keeping face and temper smooth, make a start now toward next year's Thanksgiving by getting a Gillette and using it. If you are already a Gillette enthusiast, isn't there someone you know, at home

Sir:—
After reading the article copied from "Exchange" in your paper last week headed "Quebec has failed," let me ask you if you can give me, through the medium of your paper, the number of men from Quebec Province who have enlisted in the 12th, 26th, 55th, 104th and 132nd N. B. Battalions.

This question asked Acting Minister of Militia last winter by Hon. Chas. Marcil, and as far as can be ascertained, is not answered yet.

Lieutenant Ernest H. Welch, of St.
John, who was wounded during the big smash on the Somme front, and after being taken to a dressing station in the rear and his wounds dressed, he insisted on going back with the 26th Battalion and continuing his duties as machine gun officer with that unit. Shortly after his return to the firing line, he was killed instantly. He had many friends in Campbellton, Dalhousie and other North Shore towns who will regret to hear of his death.

Lieutenant Welch was a very popular commercial traveller for the firm of Moirs Limited, Halifax.
