Mrs. Perley, wife of Hon. W. E. Perley, M. P., for Sanbury, died at her home at Blauville, last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Perley had been an invalid for some time, but her death was quite unexpected. Mrs. Perley has the sympathy of many friends in her bereavement.

On Monday, in the Assembly, Mr. Wetmore introduced a bill to authorize the Municipality of York County to recover and collect from the City of Frederick one-half of the cost of the new Record office, vaults and other offices lately constructed in the lower part of the County Court House.

The St. John press is well represented in Frederick today. Messrs. Mr. Ellis of the Globe, who is attending his Legislative duties, will also attend to the duties of the St. John press, and Messrs. Mr. O'Connor and Mr. McCreedy of the Telegraph. Can it be possible these gentlemen are meditating a raid on the provincial treasury?

The Concert in the St. Dunstan's Hall last night in aid of the funds of the Orphan Asylum was very largely patronized, the receipts amounting to $80. The soloists were Mr. G. Connelly, Miss O'Connor and Messrs H. G. Eater, H. O'Neill, J. H. Williamson, T. G. O'Connor, J. Ashton, Max. Gravel and D. J. Martin were among those who took part in the programme which was well received by those present.

Robert Moore of Frederick, formerly of the County Registry Office, and employed in Messrs. Clarke, Kerr & Thomas's hardware store, last night, had a miraculous escape from being crushed to death last Thursday evening. He was engaged hoisting resin barrels from the ground floor to the fourth floor. The elevator, which was using, has two doors to it, one suspended about eight feet below the other. When the accident occurred, there were three barrels of resin on the elevator, two on the upper floor and one on the lower. For some unexplained reason, Moore allowed the elevator to run up until the floor having the one barrel on it, was level with the fourth floor of the building. He then proceeded to roll the barrel from the elevator. In so doing he caused the upper part of the elevator to cant, and one of the barrels, weighing five hundred pounds, rolled over the back of his head, and he was killed.

He was found to be in a terrible state, blood flowing in torrents from the top of his head, his mouth and his feet. How he escaped being completely crushed is only known by a merciful Providence. His skull was badly fractured; nearly all the teeth in the front of his mouth were broken and pieces of them sticking in his cheeks. One arm was fractured, and one foot almost crushed into jelly, the sole of the foot being torn completely off. He was sent to the Hospital, and is recovering.

ENTERTAINMENT AT DUBLIN.—An interesting in my last notes, the Methodist Parsonage Aid Society gave an entertainment in Hammond's Hall, Dublin, Ireland, for the benefit of the G. H. aid. Considering the fact that so many of our worthy people are in the woods, there was quite a respectable attendance.

J. Holyoke occupied the chair. The programme, which included a great variety of songs, was received with marked appreciation. An efficient choir sang several popular songs, including, "All Hail," "The Hunting Tenor," "No Sir," "A Boy's Best Friend is his Mother," and "Take heed, O ye Sons of Men." The singing was well appreciated.

Another song entitled "Single Life," was sung by Mr. M. Morris, and was much appreciated. The same gentleman delivered a topical stump speech, which nearly sent everybody into convulsions. Half a dozen dialogues, some serious, others comic, but all entertaining contributed to the making of a pleasant evening. All the characters were well represented. Isaac Kiburn, Jr., as the "Irishman," and John Simon, as the "Devil," were true to life. A unique sketch of the "Unfortunate Nigger," in which Albert Everett and Menzie Cliff participated, was highly enjoyed, and was of a most pleasing nature. A characteristic reading by George McEwen, Meg, completed the programme. If space permitted, a word could be said in praise of the ladies, but suffice it to say, they excelled as they always do.

DONATION.—The Methodist congregation at Long's, held their annual "Lenten Supper" on Monday, 10th inst., at the house of Squire Gibson, kindly lent for the occasion. Between sixty and seventy people met together representing all the denominations in the community. The evening's doing may be summed up as follows:—A grand supper, (which the Long's Creek folk know how to prepare), music, vocal and instrumental, conversation, and the collection, which amounted to thirty-five dollars, was handed over at the close of the pastor, Rev. Thos. Hicks.

DYPHTHERIA.—I am sorry to say that this terrible disease is still lurking in this community, and has recently reappeared in two or three homes.

If your child is suffering from worms, we would recommend you to give at once Dr. McEwen's Vegetable Worm Syrup, it is not only a safe and efficient remedy, but an exceedingly pleasant one. Sold by all dealers, price 25 cents.
