The hotel men are about to move on the city in a way which will not prove particularly pleasant to the officials of some of the department. It will be recollected that last year the council tacked on another hundred dollars, on the hotel licenses, making them $450 instead of $850 as formerly. No effort was made to place the bylaw before the people for a pleb iscite as required by the statutes, and the old sum only was demanded. Now, however, some smart lawyer thinks he has discovered that the council in passing the $450 resolution rescinded the $350 one. Thus, although the $450 had still to be legalized the old arrangement ceased. The Ontario Government gets $360 of each license fee by statute. That it is bound to get and over and above that amount goes to the municipality. The hotel men claim that by its action the council legislated it, self out of its $100 and had no right to collect it. On this account they have paid the present license fee under protest, and propose to sue the city for the extra $100 paid in 1890. Should their contention be correct the city is out $30,000.

An item appeared in The Mail of yesterday in regard to a combination by the Massey Company of Toronto and the Harris, Son & Co. of Brantford. The World was informed yesterday that the combination has in fact been effected, but that the details are altogether different from those published, and that the financial announcement of the sale will be given to the public to day.

Minister Rudini thinks it is high time to annex Canada and has adopted a warlike tone regarding the New Orleans troubles, his object being to involve Canada in the difficulty with the States. He believes that a country which can turn out soaps like the Magnetic and Wonder should belong to Italy. We are not surprised at his views when he goes so far as to say that they will wash even the Mafa clean. We don't know that they will go so far as that, but they certainly will do everything else that soap can do.
