DISTRESSING HEADACHES.

Headaches are largely the result of dis-ordered kidneys.
Mrs. Hall, 84 Flora St., St. Thomas, says: "I suffered for years with headaches of a serious nature. They would come on me suddenly, and would last for days at a time. These were usually accompanied by spells of dizziness that would leave me unable to attend to my house duties. My back was weak and caused me much suffering throughout the night. I had doctored for years but of no avail.
Nothing benefited me and my condition was gradually becoming worse. I learned of Booth's Kidney Pills. One box gave me a complete and lasting cure. I have not had a headache or dizzy spell since and I feel like a new person."

Zoroaster.
All classical antiquity, without a dissentient voice, speaks of Zoroaster as a historical person. But there is great diversity of opinion with regard to his time, the date of his birth being placed all the way from 5,000 B.C. to 800 B.C. He probably lived about 1400 B.C. From all accounts the father of the old Persian faith possessed a most beautiful character and gave the world many of its finest teachings. There is no doubt that in the Persian Scriptures, known as the Zend Avesta, we have the substance of Zoroaster's teachings, though, of course, they have been greatly added to. In the present day Parsees of Bombay we have the historical descendants of Zoroaster and his religion.

Bravery and Poverty.
To be able to look cheerfully and hopefully through clouds of poverty and distress is an accomplishment bestowed upon every true and brave woman, and, no matter how poor or humble her home may be, the magic power of smiles can brighten its shadows and lighten its cares. Upon the troubled mind of a weeping husband a wife's smile falls like a sunbeam on a flower, and how much more beautiful it makes the face that wears it than a frown? When a wife and mother, forgetting sorrows and hardships, smiles away her tears, there is a loveliness in the act that speaks to a man's heart more eloquently than words.

Origin of Patents.
Patents (from pates, I lie open) originated with the so-called nobility of France. Lest their superiority to other folks should be in doubt, the nobles got out titles of nobility, so that the fact that they were better than the rest of the people might "lie open" to all the world. It was in connection with the printing of books that the first real patents were issued, about 1550. By 1625 it began to be customary to issue patents protecting the rights of inventors in the arts and manufactures. Since that time the people in the various "patent offices" of the world have had a steadily increasing business.

Catarrhal,
Bad Breath
Corrected Quickly by the Use of Catarrhazone

Catarrh is an inflammation. Where there is inflammation there is always more or less offensive secretions. Inflammation may be of the very active sort, but it is often of the slow kind, and this is the particular form in which the breath is rendered offensive and the presence of the sufferer becomes an offence to every person of delicate sensibility.
Bad breath is in itself sufficient to urge you to correct it, because one dislikes to be unpleasant to their friends, but this form of catarrh is dangerous because it supplies a hotbed for the development of Consumption or of other diseases of the throat and lungs.

Bad breath is an evidence that the microbes have found a good resting place and are carrying on their evil inroads into the health of the body.
Catarrhazone acts at once and destroy these minute organisms, but it does more—it heals the inflamed surfaces in which they found a nesting place and consequently removes both cause and effects of their action.
If we only highly estimated the value of prevention and used Catarrhazone at the beginning of a cold or just before it becomes well seated, the deadly ravages of Consumption would be stayed and the terrible agonies of sufferers of Asthma or Bronchitis completely abolished.

There is no remedy as effective for bad breath, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, etc., as Catarrhazone. Besides being healing and soothing it is germ destroying. Nothing ever offered to the public can compare with it in its promptness, efficiency and permanency of action, and you can buy it from any dealer in medicine throughout the Dominion of Canada, 25c, 50c, and $1.00 sizes. By mail from The Catarrhazone Co., Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Ont.

ALL PACK MULES.

The Dull Street and the Load, Not the Green Pasture, Our Portion.
Never a spirit without its saddle, says a writer. It was not always so.
We began life free. Like young colts frisking in the meadow, with nothing to do but kick up their heels, feed and frolic. Then we were caught, bridled, broken to the saddle and the shafts, and now no more open pasture days, but the dull street and the load and the driver's lash.
Since we are all destined to be pack mules there must be some design in it. What is nature's object? Does she want to break us down, plow wrinkles in our brows, dig crow's feet by our eyes, dry our skins and our hearts, hump our backs, and squeeze all the juice and sparkle of youth out of us?
If this were all, nature were surely cruel.

There is another end she has in view in the carrying out of which our life forces are spent. And that end is—character. No man can reflect long upon the events and laws of life and avoid the conclusion that we were put here, not to be happy, but to become great. Nature sets a great deal more store by character than we. She does not care so much for getting things done, such as building cities and churches, establishing huge institutions, and carrying on wide reforms as she uses these things to train her children.
It is the burden that makes the soul fiber. No careless spirit ever became lofty and strong. Those who do not work have no muscles, and those who do not suffer have no spirit muscle.

Even when we dodge the unnecessary burdens, much remains to be carried up the steep of life. The one who cannot feel them is not to be envied. There are butterflies and parasites who never tote anything. They fit or fasten themselves upon some worker. Every earnest soul that is drawing his cart of responsibilities has a number of these light-hearted gentry stealing rides. Why bother about them?

A Terrible Threat.
An engineering operation uptown made it necessary a few days ago for one of the workmen to hold another on a rope halfway down a deep well.
A fall would probably have been fatal, and Patrick kept the rope tight and steady while Terence made the dangerous descent.
After a quarter of an hour Patrick's attention wandered to something else.
Instinctively he kept hold of the rope, but he did not hear Terence calling to him that it was time to pull him up until his fellow worker raised his voice in angry protest.

"Pull me up," called Terence.
"Pull me up, I tell ye. If ye don't pull me up, drat ye, I'll cut the rope, and then where'll ye be?"

Tree Don'ts.
A few "tree don'ts": Don't tie your horse to a tree. Don't carve your initials on it. Don't peel its bark. Don't cut a valuable hardwood sapling for a fishpole. Buy a bamboo pole for 20 cents instead. Don't start a forest fire. Don't let the electric light, telephone or trolley men hack or mutilate a tree. Don't cut down an old tree that is a landmark even if it is on your property. Such a tree, like the air and sunshine, belongs to the world, not to an individual, though the law may not say so.

Not a Bit Accommodating.
"Meanest folks I ever saw in the city," growled the man from the way back district. "Why, when you find a feller goin' right your way with one o' them big cars he won't give you a lift, without chargin' you a nickel for it."

That Was All.
"Maria," demanded Mr. Billus in a loud voice, "what have you been doing to my razor?"
"Nothing," said Mrs. Billus, "except sharpening it again after shaving Fido's tail with it. It's all right, isn't it?"

More Than Devotion.
"Why are you pawing your dress suit?"
"My wife wants to take a little trip."
"There's a devotion for you!"
"Well, the more money I can give her the longer she can stay."

Valuable Advice.
"You are always asking me for advice, but you never seem to take any that I give."
"I know it. You see, I am frequently in doubt before I consult you, as to what is the best thing not to do."

Shiloh's Cure
quickly stops coughs, cures colds, heals the throat and lungs. . . . 25 cents.
The Petrolia Wagon Co. has bought the remaining two acres of land between the wagon-works and the canning factory. In anticipation of still further extensions to the plant.

FROST FENCE

This fence is made in Canada entirely of Canadian products. All the wires are full size true to gauge. Laterals and uprights are all No. 9 Hard Steel, well galvanized stock. Laterals are given a deep and continuous wave for "give and take." These coils or waves serve like a spring keeping the fence tight throughout all seasons and under all conditions. It is used by the principal farmers everywhere. The cost to you is no more than the price of other fence of equal weight. Insist on getting it.
