Death of Dr. R. H. Baird

On Friday, March 23rd, the sad intelligence reached relatives and friends in Warwick, of the death at Vera, Florida, of Dr. Robert H. Baird. Dr. Baird was a member of an old and highly esteemed family of the township, his grandfather having settled on lot 22, con. 1, in 1851, and where a grandson, a brother of the Doctor's, still resides.

Dr. Baird was born in 1873 and after the death of his father, the family moved to Michigan, educated at the St. Clair public and high schools, returning to the old homestead in 1894 and farmed in company with his brother, entered the Detroit College of medicine in 1897, graduated 1901. After trip through the Canadian and American west he opened an office at Howell, Mich., where he enjoyed a lucrative practice until compelled through failing health to give it up. In November last, accompanied by his wife, he journeyed to Florida hoping to regain his health, but such was not to be.

The body was brought to his home at Howell, the funeral taking place on Tuesday, March 27th. After the services at the house the Masonic Order took charge of the funeral. The cortege proceeded to Lake Side Cemetery, where the body was placed in the mausoleum and the beautiful and impressive services of the order were conducted.

Dr. Baird was married in 1907 to Miss Ladd, of Lansing, who survives him. Also his mother Mrs. R. F. Stuart and step father R. F. Stuart, Richmond; G. A. Baird, Watford; Mrs. C. Kruger, Richmond, Mich.; James Stuart, Columbus, Mich.

SPRING IMPURITIES IN THE BLOOD

A Tonic Medicine is a Necessity at This Season

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are an all year round tonic, blood-builder and nerve-restorer. But they are especially valuable in the spring when the system is loaded with impurities as a result of the indoor life of the winter months. There is no other season when the blood is so much in need of purifying and enriching, and every dose of these pills help to make new, rich, red blood. In the spring one feels weak and tired—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills give strength. In the spring the appetite is often poor—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills develop the appetite, tone the stomach and aid weak digestion. It is in the spring that poisons in the blood find an outlet in disfiguring pimples, eruptions and boils—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills specially clear the skin because they go to the root of the trouble in the blood. In the spring anaemia, rheumatism, indigestion, neuralgia, erysipelas and many other troubles are most persistent because of poor, weak blood, and it is at this time when all nature takes on new life that the blood most seriously needs attention. Some people dose themselves with purgatives at this season, these only further weaken themselves. A purgative merely gallops through the system, emptying the bowels, but it does not cure anything. On the other hand Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new blood which reaches every nerve and organ in the body, bringing new strength, new health and vigor to weak, easily tired men, women and children. Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills this spring—they will not disappoint you.

Sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

OBITUARY

An exceptionally long and useful career came to a close on Tuesday, March 20th, 1917, when Elizabeth Lucas, widow of the late Geo. Fuller, passed peacefully into rest in the 90th year of her age. Her husband had pre-deceased her by more than thirty years. Deceased was born in Beckwith Township, Lennox County, in 1827, and while still quite young removed with her parents, brothers and sisters to the 12th concession of Brooke, where she resided until her marriage in February, 1845, settling then on lot 26, con. 2, S.E.R., Warwick, where she remained until the time of her death—a period of more than seventy-two years.

Her reminiscences of early days were exceptionally interesting. She remembered clearly when there were only a few houses scattered through Warwick and Brooke, when Watford was a wilderness, and London and Sarnia the nearest trading points for settlers in East Lambton.

The family milling in those days was done at first by pounding the grain on a boulder with a cavity in the top. Then a little later followed the improved method of grinding the wheat in a coffee or pepper grinder turned by hand, until still later a wind-mill was erected at Kilworth not far from London. The grain was carried to this mill and the flour brought back, a distance of about 35 miles, on the shoulders of the men of the household, who found their way by following a blind trail through the dense forest. After a time a roadway made it possible to take the journey to the mill with an ox team, when, under favorable conditions, the round trip could be made in three or four days though frequently requiring a whole week.

Notwithstanding all the inconveniences of pioneer life, however, and the care of her own large family, Mrs. Fuller was ever ready to respond to the call of suffering or distress, and her doors were always open to the stranger or the needy without any expectation of reward. Especially did she prize the privilege of ministering to the comfort of missionaries and preachers of the Gospel, no matter of what denomination, as they from time to time found their way to her home. Among those whom she thus had the joy of bidding welcome were Bishop (California) Taylor, Dr. Alexander Langford, Rev. Thomas Atkinson, "Uncle Joe Little," Rev. J. A. McLachlan, Rev. H. T. Crossley and many, many others whose names stand out in the history of Methodism in this country. She was always liberal in support of the Gospel, especially in connection with the church of her choice, and was a life-long reader of the "Christian Guardian."

It is believed that she was the very last survivor of those who attended the opening service in that historic church on the 6th line, Warwick, erected about seventy-five years ago, and dedicated the same day, under the leadership of Rev. M. Dingman, who composed the following lines on that occasion:—

The morning came, I was not idle;
I caught my steed and spanned my bride,
And four white feet in quick succession,
Soon brought me to the sixth concession.
The sun was gliding 'til creation;
The songsters warbling adoration;
But no note to me was half so cheering
As what I heard in "Gardiner's Clearing."
The busy din of axes bounding,
Chips were flying, woods resounding,
Drawing, sawing, shingle making,
Each one busy, no one speaking.
Corner men were busy fitting,
Working stanchions, working sittings,
Hands beneath in full employment,
With skids and handspikes in employment.
The walls were raised, the roof erected,
In quicker time than we expected,
Each man to shingle took his station,
While hammers smacked in operation.
Next came the moment for devotion,

while every hand suspended motion;
We sang and prayed and parted praising;
God bless the friends of "Gardiner's raising,
The funeral service of the late Mrs. Fuller was held in Zion Methodist church, 2nd line south, conducted by Rev. F. G. Robinson, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. Dr. Brown, of Arkona; and the service at the grave was taken by Rev. Moorehouse, of Forest. The remains were borne to their last resting place by three sons, John L. and Wesley J., of Arkona, and Thomas H., of Warwick; two grandsons, J. Kersey, of Dawn Tp., and Albert Fuller, of Adelaide, and a son-in-law, F. Lambe, of Arkona. Besides the above mentioned three sons, four daughters, Mrs. J. A. Hume, of Warwick; Mrs. W. H. Sillington, of Craigmyle, Alberta; Mrs. C. H. Barnes, of Toronto, and Mrs. F. Lambe, of Arkona, remain to mourn the loss of a devoted Christian mother.

Pale, withered hands, that nearly fourscore years had wrought for others, soothed the hurt of tears,
Rocked children's cradles, eased the fever's smart,
Dropped balm of love in many an aching heart;
Now stirless, folded, like a rose leaves pressed
Above the snow and silence of her breast,
In mute appeal they told of labors done,
And well-earned rest that came at set of sun.

From the worn brow the lines of care had swept,
As if an angel's kiss, the white she slept,
Had smoothed the cobweb wrinkles gentle away,
And given back the peace of childhood's day,
And on the lips the faint smile lingered said,
'Some know life's secret but the happy dead.'
So gazing where she lay, we knew that pain
And parting could not cleave her soul again.

And we were sure that they who saw her last
In that dim vista which we call the past;
Who never knew her old and laid aside,
Remembering best the maiden and the bride,
Had sprung to greet her with the olden speech,
'The dear sweet names no later lore can teach,
And "Welcome home" they cried and grasped
Her hands.'
So dwells our mother in the best of lands.

We have all the new designs and patterns in wall papers. Let us show them to you.—P. DODDS & SON.
