

place in Carleton on the 24th ult. The Masters and Members of the different Lodges on this side the harbour joined in the Procession, and assisted at the ceremony of Dedication, after attending Divine service at St. George's Church.—The building of a Temple, for their own purposes, by the Carleton Union Lodge, after but two years of existence, certainly speaks very creditable of them as members of the Masonic Fraternity, and we trust that they may long meet in the enjoyment of brotherly intercourse, dispensing moral light, goodness and charity from under their own vine and fig tree.—Chronicle.

THE SAINT ANDREWS STANDARD, is for the future to be published on Wednesday and Saturday mornings. Our contemporary has our best wishes for his prosperity, and in expressing a sincere hope that he may find his new arrangement to be profitable, we feel well assured that if industry and an earnest endeavor to give satisfaction to his patrons, are worthy of a commensurate reward, the highway to success is clearly open before him.—[St. John Advertiser].
