RUPERT SANDFORD'S BODY RECOVERED

Seen Floating By Cyril Marshall Down The River Near Bridge.
FUNERAL HELD SATURDAY
Large Attendance Of Many Friends Of Deceased—Interment At Lawrencectown.

The body of Rupert Sanford was recovered from the Annapolis River on Friday morning, just a month from the day when he lost his life by the overturning of the boat below Paradise Bridge.
Cyril Marshall, while driving his milk team across the Queen Street bridge, noticed a body floating down with the tide. He ran into Hicks' store, calling attention to the matter, after which he and Mayor Hicks secured a motor boat and with Murray Darling started after the body which was recovered a short distance below the bridge. Identification was made positive by various articles of clothing worn. The body was taken to Hicks' Undertaking Rooms and prepared for burial, the funeral taking place on Saturday afternoon from Mr. Sanford's late home, West Paradise. The services were conducted by Rev. W. S. Smith and were very largely attended. West Paradise choir rendered "Some Sweet Day Bye And Bye", "A City Four Square". A duet "Some Day the Silver Chord Will Break", was also nicely rendered. The underbearers were: Messrs. John Jackson, Will Donat, Jesse and Carl Saunders. Interment was in Lawrencectown cemetery. Besides local people there were present a large number of relatives of the deceased.

The pastor will preach in the school house there occasionally. There are 190 homes on the pastor's calling list in which there is at least one member or adherent of the church. He has called on 97 of them.

The Bridgetown M.R.E.C. District Meeting will be held at the Methodist vestry here on Thursday afternoon at 3.00, and in the evening at 8.00. LOCAL MAN WINS LITERARY PRIZE

Maurice Armstrong Secures Splendid Prize For Brilliant Essay.
The James DeMille Prize Essay at Dalhousie this year was written by Maurice Armstrong, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Armstrong. Besides the prize, a substantial one of $100. Mr. Armstrong's subject was "Episodes of History along the Annapolis River." It is interesting to note that last year's prize was also won by a former Bridgetown boy, Alfred Milner, son of F. L. Milner, K. C., now of Amherst. Rivalry in these contests is very keen. The rewards given, we understand, are the most tempting offered for literary work by any under graduate students of any Canadian University. First prizes are $200, but were not awarded at Confederation. This illustrates the high degree of merit necessary to secure any awards.

The orchestra in the United Church Sunday night was supplemented by that grand old veteran musician, a former resident of this town, Mr. Bishop, of Kentville.
