ANNAPOLIS

L. M. Fortier, Honorary Superintendent of Fort Anne Park, will spend the month of November in Halifax. The season at Fort Anne has been a busy one, no less than 5,465 visitors having signed the register. The museum is now closed for the winter. Miss Gertrude Ritchie returned from Middleton Wednesday, accompanied by Miss Irene Cox. Both of these young ladies have recovered satisfactorily from injuries sustained from an automobile accident.

Mrs. A. E. Atlee entertained very pleasantly at a bridge party of seven tables on Tuesday afternoon. The prizes were won by Mrs. F. W. Pickles, Mrs. McNaught and Miss J. Brittain.

Rev. T. C. Mellor met with a painful accident Wednesday afternoon. While inspecting the new pictures in the Town Hall he made a misstep from the platform and fell, striking against the radiator and inflicting a nasty gash in his head.

Robert Wood, of Lequille, shot a fine moose last week while at his father's home at Perotte. The animal strolled up within a short distance of the house, making his capture an easy matter. The open season for deer and partridge closed Wednesday and although many does have been seen and much damage reported to crops quite near the town, the buck shot by W. S. Cummings has been the only one captured by local sportsmen. Partridge have not been as plentiful as last year, although a few good bags are reported. The season for rabbits opened Thursday, which should afford some good shooting, as they are reported very plentiful.

LOOKS GOOD

Lloyd George's peace plan sounds good. A United Anglo-Saxon race can do anything.—(Border Cities Star).

Local Happenings

The death took place at Watrous, Saskatchewan, on Saturday, October 20th, of Helen Francis, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Armstrong, aged one year and six months. The sympathy of many friends here will go to Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, to Mrs. Armstrong, nee Winnie Piggott, particularly, as a former resident, who enjoyed a high degree of popularity.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Doris Nelly, former Bridgetown girl, to Mr. (F. B. Parke) of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Parke are now on their honeymoon at Asbury Park and other places along the New Jersey Coast, after which they will reside at 73 Gates Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.

The Monitor is in receipt of a handsome bunch of Mayflower blossoms picked on Nov. 1st, by little Alice Taylor, of Morse Road, and sent in by her teacher, Miss Minnie Bacon.

Mr. Herbert Hicks recently sold to Windsor parties two pairs very fine silver foxes and is now there superintending the erection of a six pair ranch.

Next Monday being the day appointed by Authority as a day of Thanksgiving, a short service (without sermon) will be held in St. James' Church, commencing at 11 a.m.

We are asked to again remind our readers of the date of the first monthly entertainment of the first month of the recreation hall, viz. Thursday, November 15th. As noted before, each local church, through its Pastor, has become responsible for an entertainment in alphabetic order. The Christmas effort to be an united one.

The concert on the 15th will, therefore, be under the auspices of the Anglican Church (St. James). Miss Ethel Daniels has kindly undertaken to arrange the programme. She has the promise of assistance from the very best of local talent—instrumental and vocal, and a delightful evening may be anticipated.

Mrs. T. T. Messinger has recently installed a Cider Press and Pasteurizer for the manufacture of cider, vinegar and bottled sweet cider. Business will open shortly.

Frank Burns, the little son of Mr. Wiley Burns, was operated upon at Victoria General Hospital last week for appendicitis, and is making good progress toward recovery.

The extreme mildness of the weather for this time of year excites general comment. The first snow arrived on Nov. 1st, and then a very small flurry. It is of interest to note from a record kept by Mayor Hicks that on November 15th of last year came the first sleighing and this lasted without a break till April 11th of the present year, a record almost, if not entirely, unprecedented.

The book of Tide Tables for the Eastern Coasts of Canada, compiled with all the customary care and efficiency of the Tidal and Current Survey under the superintendence of Dr. W. Bell Dawson, is out for 1924, and besides containing the data for every day that are indispensable to every shipping man, the book is replete with comment and explanations which make it conspicuously valuable.

A Ford car reported to belong to Roy Sheehan of Karsdale, lies snugly moored on the marsh at Tupperville where some time ago it crashed through the fence, executed several whirls a gips, squared around facing the road with broken windshield, top, seats and portions too numerous to specify.

A number of the young people enjoyed a pleasant dance in Ruggles Hall Saturday night. The chaperones were Mrs. Hoyt and Mrs. Ewan.

The Dorcas Society meets on Thursday afternoon at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. E. C. Hall. Last week Mary, the fifteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrester Shaffner lost part of a finger which was jammed between the tire chain and a rock which she was holding to block Joseph Edward's truck which stuck going up a steep and muddy piece of road near Dalhousie. The girl, who was riding in the truck, offered to block the wheels and did so. Mr. Edwards supposing her clear, cranked the car, which jumped back slightly, with result as above.

NICTAUX

Mrs. Allen is spending a few weeks with her daughter in Glace Bay. Walter Grant is seriously ill at the home of his father, Clarence Grant, Falls Road.

The Halloween supper given in the hall was well patronized. Mr. Fred A. Chipman after having completed picking and hauling his large crop of apples spent a few days in the South woods by way of variation.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Rogers on Tuesday evening, the 30th inst., in honor of their son, Horace, and bride, who that day arrived from New York. A large number of relatives and friends gathered to extend congratulations, and many useful and valuable presents were received.

DALHOUSIE WEST

The ladies of the Sewing Circle met Wednesday, Oct. 21st, with Mrs. Peters at her bungalow, Morse Road, and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. Mrs. Norman Buckler was called to Paradise on the account of the illness of her sister, Mrs. John Jackson.

Miss Frances Fowler, of Bridgetown, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Todd.

We are sorry to report that Mr. Fred Buckler is quite ill at the time of writing.

Mr. Samuel Hanam is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Clinton Gillis, Waterville.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harsh and family, of Lequille, spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Todd.

Miss Minnie Bacon, teacher of Morse Road, was the week-end guest at the home of Mrs. Freeman Shipp.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Durling is visiting her sister, Mrs. Clinton Gillis, of Waterville.

Quite a flurry of snow was seen here Nov. 1st.

VICTORY

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pierce and daughter, Marjorie, of Clementsvale, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson, Sunday, Oct. 28th.

Miss Ethel Hevey and Mr. Dennis Nass were married Friday, Oct. 26th. We wish them prosperity, health and a long life of happiness.

Mrs. Bent Lewis and two children, of Milford Corner, are visiting at Mr. Arthur Pulley's.

Mrs. Kenneth Beeler and little son, of Annapolis Royal, have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Ozias Darros.

Miss Estelle Campbell and Miss Edith Pulley left for Boston Friday, Oct. 26th.

Miss Eleanor Darros has returned from her visit at Bear River.

Mrs. Lemuel Hevey has gone to the hospital. We hope she will come back improved in health.

Miss Hazel Selig and Mrs. Audrie Selig are staying with the latter's father, Mr. Lemuel Hevey.

FALKLAND RIDGE

Out of town visitors and guests at Mrs. E. G. Mason's last week have been on Sunday: Lyman Whitman and bride, her sister, Miss Kathleen Robinson, Mrs. Leonard Whitman, of New Albany; Mrs. Vernon Whitman, of Nictaux Falls, and on Tuesday, Fred Chipman, of Nictaux Falls; on Wednesday evening, Rev. G. Durkee and wife took tea and remained over night.

Harold Mason returned from his trip to the Valley Sunday evening. Willard Swallow and Max Weaver who have spent the past six months at Midland, Ont., returned to their homes Monday, Oct. 29th.

Hiram Sprouts made a business trip to Mahone Bay on Tuesday the 30th, returning Nov. 1st.

Charlotte Veno, of E. Dalhousie, is at H. Slaunwhite, assisting in the care of Mrs. Slaunwhite and in the care of the house.

Alvin Dorey, who has been spending some weeks in the V. G. at Halifax, returned home Oct. 27th, much benefited in health.

Mrs. W. O. Wright, of E. Dalhousie, guest of her sister, Mrs. P. R. Marshall.

THE EDITOR UNEARTH'S A SCANDAL

The Editor of this great family journal happened to be on the petty jury last year and, along with the rest of the jurymen, he cursed the uncomfortable jury seats and uncomfortable jury room. He had intended saying something about it in The Advocate but his friend, the Sheriff told him there was no need, that provision had been made for new seats and they would soon be in. We are reminded of the incident today by a jurymen of this year's vintage coming in and telling us just what he thought of having to put up with such seats for three trials the while the judge and court officials rested their sterna on cushioned covered chairs of luxury. Those jury seats, and that jury room which generally has a few broken chairs in it are a disgrace to the county. The county councillors, the most of whom at one time or another have been or will be on juries should see to it that jurymen are no longer treated as prisoners in the utter lack of decent provision for their comfort and in the humiliating tone and conduct of constables toward them.—Pictou Advocate.

CLEMENTSPORT

The D.A.R. bridge gang has been at work placing new sleepers in the bridge here.

Parker and Franklin Munro are enjoying a motor trip to Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Ruggles spent several days last week visiting friends in Berwick and Welsford. Miss Elsie Mitchell, of Sandy Cove, is a visitor at Avarid Nelly's. Mrs. Mervin Vidito is in poor health with the doctor in attendance.

HIGHLY PLEASED WITH THEIR HUNTING TRIP

Among the highly pleased and much delighted Unsett States hunters returning to their homes after a cruise over the hunting grounds of this section of the Province were Messrs. D. R. Longnecker, L. A. Abrams, D. T. Simmons and Frank B. Gardner, all of Rockville Centre, N. Y., who left by the Prince George on Friday evening, after spending two weeks in the woods back of Kemprville, with Messrs. Judson and Clarence Gray, Matthew Crowell and Thomas Crowell, as guides. This was their first hunting cruise in Nova Scotia, and the four gentlemen were greatly elated over the success of their outing, as each was successful in securing a fine moose, while one of the party also carried away the skin of a good sized bear, which, when shot measured over six feet in length.

In addition they saw during their two weeks' stay many other animals, including foxes, deer, rabbits, wild cats, etc., and over fifty moose, which almost continuously kept the excitement of a real hunting trip at the highest pitch. As they boarded the Prince George on Friday evening, they could not proclaim the sporting pleasures of this section too loudly, and as they joined another party a section further to the northward, which had not even seen the track of a moose or other animals, consequently were returning home much disgusted. Messrs. Longnecker and party urged upon them, for this season, to forget their ill-luck, and for another year make arrangements for a Yarmouth County guide, and cruise the woods of this and the neighboring counties. Messrs. Gray and his guides had their guests at the Ruby Lake and Bucks Lake camps, consequently they were right on the best hunting grounds which this Province affords. The Rockville Centre party admit that without an exception it was the best hunting cruise they had ever experienced and have made arrangements for another trip next season. The last four days of the trip they were joined by Messrs. L. C. Gardner and H. L. Cain, of Yarmouth.—Yarmouth Herald.

In another column will be found the card of a new legal firm made up by Hon. O. T. Daniels and Mr. K. L. Crowell, entering into partnership. Mr. Crowell, since coming but a few months ago to town, has made excellent progress in working up a good practice. Association with Hon. O. T. Daniels, whose long experience and familiarity with the intricacies of the law, makes up a particularly strong legal firm.

SWISS MUSICAL BELL RINGERS

The Musical Eckhardts, Swiss bell ringers, are billed to appear at the Primrose Theatre on Monday evening, Nov. 12th. Although this is their first tour of the Maritime Province, the company are well known in Canada west of Montreal, where they have been entertaining the public for over a quarter of a century. The Eckardts claim to have the largest peal of Swiss hand bells in America, 180, which are played by fine ringers. Besides the bells they perform on musical glasses, chimes, xylophones, saxophones, brass and string instruments. The company numbers a comedian who will entertain with comic songs, monologues, and character impersonations. As a special added attraction for this tour the Eckardts have engaged Wee Bella Johnson, juvenile dancer and comedienne, late of the Winnipeg Kiddies Co.
