

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be tendered to Dr. A. C. Cogswell for his valuable paper on "Nicotiana," also to Dr. H. Woodbury for his interesting paper on "Cataphorsis."

Resolved, That this Association extend a vote of thanks to the resident dentists of Wolfville and Kentville for the royal manner in which the visiting delegates were entertained. Passed.

The question box was the next order of business, and occupied the remainder of the evening session.

The meeting adjourned to meet at 9.30 a.m.

WOLFVILLE, Aug. 26th, 1897.

The morning session opened at 9.30 a.m., President Dr. G. K. Thomson in the chair.

The principal object of this session was to talk over and try to secure in some way an interest in our annual meetings.

Resolved, That in view of increasing the interest of the annual meeting, each member who expects to attend the next meeting of the Association be requested to bring some other member of the profession along with him. Passed.

Upon motion, the Seventh Annual Convention adjourned.

G. K. THOMSON, D.D.S., President.
J. A. JOHNSON, D.D.S., Secretary.

CODE OF ETHICS OF THE DENTAL ASSOCIATION OF THE PROVINCE OF NOVA SCOTIA. ADOPTED 1893.

The Duties of the Profession to Their Patients :

Sec. 1. The dentist should be ever ready to respond to the wants of his patrons, and should fully recognize the obligations involved in the discharge of his duties towards them. As they are in most cases unable to correctly estimate the character of his operations, his own sense of right must guarantee faithfulness in their performance. His manner should be firm, yet kind and sympathizing, so as to gain the respect and confidence of his patients ; and even the simplest case committed to his care should receive the attention which is due to operations performed on living, sensitive tissue.

Sec. 2. It is not to be expected that the patient will possess a very extended, or a very accurate knowledge of professional matters. The dentist should make due allowance for this, patiently explaining many things which might seem quite clear to himself, thus endeavoring to educate the public mind, so that it properly appreciates the beneficent efforts of our profession. He should encourage no false hopes by promising success, when, in the nature of the case, there is uncertainty.

Sec. 3. The dentist should be temperate in all things, keeping
