

THE WORLD
FOR 1878.

Since the change in the proprietorship (which took place May 1, 1878), "The World has been the brightest, sprightliest, most scholarly and popular journal in the metropolis." It is entertaining, interesting, bright, decent, and truthful. It does wrong, wittingly, to no man, no creed, interest and no party. The World believes the Democratic Party to be for the good of the public service. It does not believe the public service to exist for the Democratic Party.

It is generally acknowledged that the Sporting News is fuller and more accurate than any other Daily Journal. During 1878 the World will spare no trouble or expense to give the earliest and best accounts of Races (including and trotting), Fox Hunting, Yachting, Fishing, Base Ball, Cricket, Football, Lacrosse, Rifle Matches, Pigeon Matches, &c., &c. Nothing of interest to sportsmen will escape the attention of THE WORLD. The Agricultural Department of THE WORLD is under the charge of D. T. Moore, the founder for many years editor of

MOORE'S RURAL NEW YORKER.
