THE MISSIONARY REGISTER.

OF THE

Bresbyterian Church of Yova Scotia.

LORD, bless and pity us, shine on us with thy face, That the earth thy way, and nations all, may know thy saving grace .- Psalms lxvii. 1, 2

Vol. 11.

OCTOBER, 1860.

No. 10.

CONTENTS:

Foreign Mission. Sixteenth Annual Report,

NEWS OF THE CHURCH. 145 The Union Meetings,

154

Notices,

159

SIXTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS OF THE PBN. CH. OF NOVA SCOTIA

The Home operations of the Board have, however remote. Indeed the outlying disduring the past year, exhibited very little of tricts have peculiar claims, not so much as stirring interest beyond the usual routine of to the prosperity of the mission, as to the receiving and answering correspondence from healthful influence thus imparted to the min-Missionaries; and the remittance of monies ister and people who are called to look upon for their Salaries, and the various conting- and listen to the outgoing missionary. The encies of the Mission. The equipment and Board are painfully aware that many ardent departure of our Fourth Missionary Rev. S. friends of the mission are situate in the ex-F. Johnston required frequent meetings tremities of the Church, where rarely if ever during the earlier portion of the year now the voice of any of our missionaries has elapsed. Under the direction of Synod, the been heard, but it ought not to be less appar-Presbytery of Truro, after receiving and ap- ent to these brethren, that the period which proving the various parts of Trials assigned intervenes between the acceptance of the him, proceeded in due course to ordination. missionary by the Synod in Junc, and his The interval occupied in the preparation of departure in the fall of the same year, is too these Trials and ordination services, inter- limited by far to admit of any other than a rupted of necessity the arrangements made partial visitation of the Churches. To acby the Board, prior to the Synod and Pres- complish even that which has been accombytery's action in the matter; but care was plished, much careful arrangement was needtaken that such disappointments as did oc- ful on the part of the Board, and very great cur were as speedily and fully removed as fatigue, both mental and bodily, on the part time and opportunity permitted. It has al- of the missionary. It is highly gratifying ways been matter of great regret that with to know that the pecuniary results of Mr. all the best arrangements that could be made Johnston's visits have enabled us to meet by the Board, and all the faithfulness and the necessary expenditure of his outfit and zeal of our several Missionaries on the eve passage, and that of his lady, without any of their departure from us, there should re- serious demands upon the General Fund. It main unvisited any portion of the Church, is not less gradifying to know that while Mr.