

LEMON CAKES.—Quarter pound of butter, six ounces of flour, quarter pound of sugar, the grated rind of a lemon, the yolks of two eggs; beat the butter to a cream, add the sugar and lemon-rind, stir in the flour, and mix with the eggs; put in patty pans, and bake ten minutes.

PLAIN WAFERS.—Make butter milk biscuit dough, only have it a little stiffer than you would for biscuit; roll it out, and cut butter into small bits; sprinkle over the dough, roll it up and work thoroughly. Roll thin and cut the size to suit the irons; bake a light brown. They are crisp and delicious, and make an appetizing addition to the tea-table.

PRUNE JELLY.—Soak a pound of prunes in a quart of water three hours. Drain them and strain the water in which you soaked them. Put it on the range with a pound of sugar and let it boil half an hour. Remove the stones from the prunes and put them into the boiling syrup and boil it up again. Soak half a box of gelatine into a little cold water, and stir it in the boiling prunes. Pour them into a mould wet with cold water and set them in a cold place to harden. Serve with sugar and cream.

WASHINGTON CAKE.—Three-quarters of a pound of butter, three-quarters of a pound of sugar, sifted; five eggs, well beaten, whites and yolks separately, one-third of a cupful of sweet milk, one-third of a cupful of best brandy, one nutmeg, grated; three-quarters of a pound of sultana raisins and of finely minced citron, fourteen ounces of the finest white flour sifted three times; one teaspoonful of saleratus; cream the butter and sugar, add the other things in order, pour into buttered pans, and bake as for fruit cake.

A peculiar fact with reference to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is, that, unlike sarsaparillas and other blood medicines, which are said to be good for the blood in March, April and May, the "Discovery" works equally well all the year round, and in all cases of blood-taints or humors, no matter what their name or nature.

It's the cheapest blood-purifier sold through druggists.

Why? Because it's sold on a peculiar plan, and you only pay for the good you get.

Can you ask more? "Golden Medical Discovery" is a concentrated vegetable extract, put up in large bottles; contains no alcohol to inebriate, no syrup or sugar to derange digestion; is pleasant to the taste, and equally good for adults or children.

The "Discovery" cures all Skin, Scalp and Scrofulous affections, as Eczema, Tetter, Salt-rheum, Fever-sores, White Swellings, Hip-joint disease and kindred ailments.

BANANA CREAM.—Mash in a bowl four ripe bananas, and beat till they are light. Whip one-half pint of cream till it is stiff; add to the bananas with sugar to taste and a little almond extract. Place in a glass dish and chill on ice.
