

Regulations, and has provided for the more important suggestions received, and now submits the Regulations thus corrected for examination and adoption. The Regulations were then examined, and after certain amendments they were adopted and ordered to be printed, under the direction of the Sub-committee, and submitted to the Lieutenant-Governor for approval.

E. T. Hemming, Esq., D.C.L., objected, entering his dissent from the use of the words, "but no denominational teaching shall be given in such schools," in the article referring to religious instruction in Protestant schools.

The Sub-committee on the status of Teachers holding Extra-Provincial Diplomas, recommended the following Regulation for the Protestant Division of the Board of Examiners, which was adopted:—

A person holding a diploma as teacher granted by Extra-Provincial Examiners, who desires to obtain a diploma for this province, shall be exempted by the Protestant Divisions of Boards of Examiners from examination in any subject in which he passed creditably in his extra-provincial examination.

Such persons are required, however, to submit to the Protestant Committee the following documents:—

(a) A programme showing the subjects and the nature of the examination upon which he obtained his extra-provincial diploma;

(b) A certified statement of the marks obtained in each subject of the examination;

(c) The diploma which he holds;

(d) A certificate of age and a certificate of moral character, according to the authorized form; and no such exemption shall be granted without a recommendation to that effect from the Protestant Committee, after considering all the circumstances of the case, naming the subjects to be omitted and the grades of diploma that may be given.

Such persons, upon passing the examination in the remaining subjects prescribed for said grade of diploma, and in the School Law and Regulations of the Province, and paying the prescribed fees, shall be granted a diploma of the grade recommended by the Protestant Committee.

The Sub-committee also presented a report to amend Regulation III for Academy diplomas by inserting after "McGill Normal School," in the sixth line, the words, "or other public training institutions outside the Province, approved by the Protestant Committee."

The Chairman reported, on behalf of the Committee on the Distribution of the Marriage License Fund, that the original document referred to in the last report, signed by the Protestant members of the Council of Public Instruction, recommending the original division of the Marriage License Fees, had been found, and the document was read for the information of the Committee.

The Committee agreed to request the Secretary to draw up a historical statement concerning the Marriage License Fund, and to include therein all available information and documents.

The Sub-committee on Professions and Professional Examinations reported progress, and asked leave to sit again, which was granted.
