

TWO GOOD PAPERS.

The best paper for your family or your friend's family is the Montreal Witness, which while it is abreast with the news, is notable for its unexceptionable family reading and for its adherence to the great principles which it has consistently advocated for a generation. It has been during all that time the uncompromising foe of ecclesiasticism, of the drink traffic, and all forms of oppression, among which it counts protection. It has devoted itself much of late years to the promotion of reciprocity with the United States, and has recently been filled with the contest against Jesuit aggression, on which battle-field it is, as might be expected, the foremost and most fearless champion. The question and answer departments of the Witness have grown into an institution in the country, and the paper is well known as an old friend an instructor of the farmer, "Lindenbank," and "Rusticus," being still constant contributors. The children look for their special stories and for the puzzle department. The yearly subscription to the Daily Witness is $3, and to the Weekly Witness $1, which should be addressed to the publishers, John Dougall & Son.

The Northern Messenger, issued by the same publishers, is still the cheapest illustrated paper published, and is full of the best of family reading as well as reading for the young. The subscription price is only 30 cents a year.
