

OUR GENERAL AGENT

The Rev. A. Milne, M.A., has, we regret to say, been compelled to sever his connection with the PRESBYTERIAN. The changeable and very often inclement weather which he had to encounter in prosecuting his labours, especially at this season of the year, was too much for a delicate constitution, and he could no longer continue the work. Mr. Milne will, for a time at least, fill the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church at Hammond, St. Lawrence Co. State of New York. He has our best wishes for his comfort and usefulness.

OUR CANVASS.

The Rev. Mr. Milne, in resigning his position as General Agent for this Journal says: "My idea is that the circulation could be greatly increased if the minister of the congregation would appoint a local agent. In that way the country congregations could be worked up, and that is where your greatest increase must come from. I find wherever a Minister has spoken of the paper from the pulpit and in his visit ag that there we have a good circulation. All it wants is pushing. Get it introduced into the families of our Church, and they won't go without it." "Often and often I have heard your subscribers say "We would not be without it."

In view of Mr. Milne's experience, would it not be well for our ministers to aid us in securing for the PRESBYTERIAN a more extended circulation by appointing a suitable person in each congregation to act as agent. Some have already done so with the best results. In several places clubs have been started; in other localities ministers have canvassed for 40 or 60 subscribers to secure a Communion Service, as a premium; and in some instances, Sabbath-Schools have increased their Libraries by sending twenty, thirty, or forty names of new subscribers. We urge our co-laborers not to lose time. Our general agent having resigned, we have to depend, to a large extent, on voluntary effort. Our friends can help us if they will. Now is the time for renewing and extending subscriptions. We send specimen copies, prepaid, to all who write for them. We are hearing already from active friends, but shall be glad to hear from more. Remember, THREE THOUSAND new subscribers is the figure we want to reach early the coming year. With your assistance, kind reader, this point will be very easily attained.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1874—7th YEAR.

THE ALDINE,

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the handsomest periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

NOT FOR SALE IN BOOK OR NEWS STORES.

THE ALDINE, which issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost, and then there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favour of "steel plates," is rapidly passing to a more educated and discerning taste, which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater frequency of production. The woodcuts of THE ALDINE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afforded a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs of the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscriber to THE ALDINE will, at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasures and refining influences of true art.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Theo. Morgan and J. D. Woodward.

The Christmas issue for 1873 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attractions any of its predecessors.

Premium for 1874.

Every subscriber for The Aldine for the year 1874, will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted for the publishers of The Aldine by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects are chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is The White Mountain New Hampshire; the other gives The Cliffs of Grosu River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves is a pleasing contrast, and the subjects are selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size 12 x 10 and appearance exact fac-similes of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of The Aldine was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr. Morgan himself

New York, N. J., Sept. 20th 1873.

Messrs. James Sutton & Co. Gentlemen.—I am delighted with proofs in color of your chromos. They are wonderfully successful representations by mechanical process of the original paintings. Very respectfully,

THEO. MORGAN

These chromos are in every sense American. They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the best successful American Art Journal. If so, after because of all this, they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can insure and neither are they any the worse if by reason of peculiar facilities of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to the chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE. Persons of taste will prize these pictures for the same reason—not for the price they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.

If any subscriber should manifest a preference for a negro subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 14 x 20 inches, representing a little "Boston" coffee house speaking of the longings of his heart.

TERMS.

$5 per annum in advance, with Oil Chromo free. For 50 cents extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, uncut, and prepared by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable by subscription. There will be no reduced rate; each for subscribers must be sent to the publishers direct or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the publisher only receives the fac-simile signature of JAMES SUTTON & CO.
