St. Joux, N.B., lobster packers are receiving large importations of tin in preparation for operations in the coming season. One large packer will export at least three-quarters of a million of pounds. Other canned goods, as mackerel, salmon, berries, etc., are put up to a more limited extent.

The Nova Scotia Coal Company's railway, built over forty years ago by an engineer who had never seen a railway, and one of the first railways constructed in America, was and is exactly the same gauge as the standard recently adopted by all railways, after many changes and differences.

A REPORT of the 12th inst. from the small fishing grounds of Richibucto, N.B., represents the shipments up to that date at 700 tons, and with trifling exceptions forwarded in good order.—The lowest price for codfish known in twenty years—$2 per quintal—has ruled at Halifax during the past week.

AT THE annual meeting of the Richelieu & Ontario Navigation Co., held in this city on Tuesday last, the following were appointed directors for the ensuing year:—Messrs. L. A. Senecal, president; Alex. Murray, vice-president; R. Cowans, Alph. Desjardins, John McDougall, J. B. Renaud and Hon. H. Starnes.

J. B. JOURNET gave up bar-tending at the Dafoe House, Belleville, last fall, and opened a hotel on his own account. He now finds that his former occupation paid best. He has assigned.—John Pope, grocer, Peterboro recently referred to, has assigned.—Stewart &

A MEMBER of the Ontario Legislature urges that Province to press her claims on the Federal Government on account of the subsidies given to railways, meantime brought under the control of the Dominion. The amount is given at nearly five millions of dollars. A delegation from a western county has been in Ottawa during the week pressing their local claims for re-imbursement.

A noted defaulter is Maurice Wendell, secretary-treasurer and chief shareholder of the Aurora Watch Co., of Chicago, whose misappropriations of the company's funds within a year exceed $200,000. When the frauds were discovered he boldly confessed that he joined the concern for the purpose of speculating with the stockholders' money, and coolly asked the directors what they proposed to do about it.

THE troubles in the jewellery trade for some time past in Toronto are doubtless due to want of sufficient capital to tide over a period when such luxurious wearables are not much in demand; but they are probably due also in a degree to the superior business ability of some of the comparatively younger houses (a certain firm of brothers for example) whose success is so much subtracted from the old competitors. The influence of this success has led to the establishment of weak concerns here and there throughout the city. The latest failure is that of Wall & Taylor, who at last accounts had the bailiff in possession. They began about a year ago with little means, and, being steady and attentive, one or two houses gave them some credit, with the result noted.
