

A request having been made for some assistance from the Society towards the church at Conoco do Lac, the Board of Missions...

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT TO DEPARTED WORTH. A very beautiful white marble tablet, with black border and cornice, has been lately placed in the Church of St. John, Stamford, Niagara District...

through the blood of the everlasting covenant; Perish in every great work to do him, working in us that which is acceptable to his sight, through the same Jesus Christ...

of burden, so that by contrast the dignity of rank may be demonstrated, and the blessings of liberty invested with a brighter halo!

seed from any other source than the seed of the heart. Indeed there was a kind of deposition and evenness of temper, which would secure a regard of his companions...

culty, the new being scarcely aware of this novel mode of transit. They are building a bridge across the river at this place, which, when completed, must be of the greatest advantage to the town...

An application, made by the Rev. A. J. D. Wilson, and recommended by the Bishop of Glasgow and Galloway, in behalf of the new church at Anderson, Glasgow, was laid before the Board...

THE REV. J. LLOYD THOMAS, SON OF THE REV. LE. L. THOMAS, LACTON OF NEWPORT, HAVREPOUR WEST, FAWCENHAM, SOUTH WALES, LATE TRAVELLING MISSIONARY TO THE TAILOID DISTRICT, AND LATE OF THE DISSENTING THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE, COLLEGE STREET, THIS TABLET IS ERECTED BY HIS FELLOW-BROTHERS AS A MARK OF HIGH ESTEEM AND REGARD FOR A DEPARTED FAITHFUL AND BROTHERLY MAN...

Almighty God, who hast led us together through the same covenant and fellowship, in the mystical body of his Son Christ our Lord, grant us grace unto us to know the blessed Sacrament in all its parts and parts, that we may come to the most acceptable part, which thou hast ordered for them that indignately receive thee, through the death of our Lord Jesus...

The deceased, Edward Coleston, D. D., born in 1776, was the son of the Rev. John Bradford Coleston, Prebendary of Exeter, successively of Arbury, Leamington, and in 1789 he was elected a scholar of Corpus Christi College, and having highly distinguished himself there, was in 1795 elected a Fellow of Oriel College...

The following Scholarships will be open for competition and awarded according to the results of a General Examination, to be held at Cobourg, on Wednesday and Thursday, the 14th and 15th August, 1850...

There is no subject connected with our ecclesiastical establishment more worthy of serious consideration than the erection of churches; and this in a twofold degree, both as regards their situation and the style of architecture...

For use and distribution in the Diocese of Cape Town, by the Rev. P. Curly, on the application of the Rev. Dr. Williams, missionary to the Bishop, 210.

The above is highly creditable to the affectionate feeling and good taste of the brother Students of the deceased Clergyman, who was cut off prematurely in the commencement of his arduous and important duties, giving every indication that, had he been spared, he would have proved a zealous minister of God's Word...

Almighty God, who hast led us together through the same covenant and fellowship, in the mystical body of his Son Christ our Lord, grant us grace unto us to know the blessed Sacrament in all its parts and parts, that we may come to the most acceptable part, which thou hast ordered for them that indignately receive thee, through the death of our Lord Jesus...

The concert by Herr Krausz, in aid of the Organ Fund of the Church of the Holy Trinity, took place last evening in the City Hall, and although suffering under a severe affection of the throat, the vocalist acquitted himself to the evident satisfaction of a numerous and highly respectable audience...

THE DECEASED. The number (we had almost said volume) of this Annual, for the ensuing year, which is now lying before us, fully sustains the reputation of its predecessors. It is a perfect cyclopedia of commercial, legal, and general information, indispensable alike to the professional man and the trader...

THE QUEN DOWAGER. Our readers will learn with sorrow that Her Majesty the Queen Dowager is dangerously ill. The Guardian of October 17th says: "Dr. Davis is in constant attendance; but the disease of the lungs, under which Her Majesty has been labouring for years, has now assumed a far more serious appearance than hitherto, so as to leave little hopes for human skill..."

For use and distribution in the Diocese of Cape Town, by the Rev. P. Curly, on the application of the Rev. Dr. Williams, missionary to the Bishop, 210.

Almighty God, who hast led us together through the same covenant and fellowship, in the mystical body of his Son Christ our Lord, grant us grace unto us to know the blessed Sacrament in all its parts and parts, that we may come to the most acceptable part, which thou hast ordered for them that indignately receive thee, through the death of our Lord Jesus...

Almighty God, who hast led us together through the same covenant and fellowship, in the mystical body of his Son Christ our Lord, grant us grace unto us to know the blessed Sacrament in all its parts and parts, that we may come to the most acceptable part, which thou hast ordered for them that indignately receive thee, through the death of our Lord Jesus...

THE QUEEN DOWAGER. Our readers will learn with sorrow that Her Majesty the Queen Dowager is dangerously ill. The Guardian of October 17th says: "Dr. Davis is in constant attendance; but the disease of the lungs, under which Her Majesty has been labouring for years, has now assumed a far more serious appearance than hitherto, so as to leave little hopes for human skill..."

THE QUEEN DOWAGER. Our readers will learn with sorrow that Her Majesty the Queen Dowager is dangerously ill. The Guardian of October 17th says: "Dr. Davis is in constant attendance; but the disease of the lungs, under which Her Majesty has been labouring for years, has now assumed a far more serious appearance than hitherto, so as to leave little hopes for human skill..."

THE QUEEN DOWAGER. Our readers will learn with sorrow that Her Majesty the Queen Dowager is dangerously ill. The Guardian of October 17th says: "Dr. Davis is in constant attendance; but the disease of the lungs, under which Her Majesty has been labouring for years, has now assumed a far more serious appearance than hitherto, so as to leave little hopes for human skill..."

For use and distribution in the Diocese of Cape Town, by the Rev. P. Curly, on the application of the Rev. Dr. Williams, missionary to the Bishop, 210.

Almighty God, who hast led us together through the same covenant and fellowship, in the mystical body of his Son Christ our Lord, grant us grace unto us to know the blessed Sacrament in all its parts and parts, that we may come to the most acceptable part, which thou hast ordered for them that indignately receive thee, through the death of our Lord Jesus...

Almighty God, who hast led us together through the same covenant and fellowship, in the mystical body of his Son Christ our Lord, grant us grace unto us to know the blessed Sacrament in all its parts and parts, that we may come to the most acceptable part, which thou hast ordered for them that indignately receive thee, through the death of our Lord Jesus...

THE QUEEN DOWAGER. Our readers will learn with sorrow that Her Majesty the Queen Dowager is dangerously ill. The Guardian of October 17th says: "Dr. Davis is in constant attendance; but the disease of the lungs, under which Her Majesty has been labouring for years, has now assumed a far more serious appearance than hitherto, so as to leave little hopes for human skill..."

THE QUEEN DOWAGER. Our readers will learn with sorrow that Her Majesty the Queen Dowager is dangerously ill. The Guardian of October 17th says: "Dr. Davis is in constant attendance; but the disease of the lungs, under which Her Majesty has been labouring for years, has now assumed a far more serious appearance than hitherto, so as to leave little hopes for human skill..."

THE QUEEN DOWAGER. Our readers will learn with sorrow that Her Majesty the Queen Dowager is dangerously ill. The Guardian of October 17th says: "Dr. Davis is in constant attendance; but the disease of the lungs, under which Her Majesty has been labouring for years, has now assumed a far more serious appearance than hitherto, so as to leave little hopes for human skill..."

Table with 3 columns: Name, Age, and Date of Birth/Death. Includes names like Mr. James, Mr. John, and Mr. William.

MORNING PRAYER FOR A FAMILY. O Lord, make speed to save us. O Lord, make haste to help us.

REPUBLICAN ARISTOCRACY. A constitutional convention has recently been held in Frankfort, Kentucky, at which the question of slavery was discussed in all its various forms and varieties. The conclusion unanimously came to was that emancipation, under any circumstances, was to be deprecated as inimical alike to the bondman and his owner...

SCOBIE AND BALFOUR'S ALMANAC. The number (we had almost said volume) of this Annual, for the ensuing year, which is now lying before us, fully sustains the reputation of its predecessors. It is a perfect cyclopedia of commercial, legal, and general information, indispensable alike to the professional man and the trader...

FROM OUR ENGLISH FILES. The quarterly returns of the revenue, just published, exhibit an aggregate increase, both on the quantity and value of the duties, of nearly one million sterling...

NEWS BY THE CAMBRIDGE. The Steamer Cambria has arrived at Halifax. Letters from Venice state that a Russian courier had arrived there with the intelligence that the Czar would not press for the extradition of the Hungarian refugees...

Table with 3 columns: Date, Name, and Location. Includes dates from Jan 1st to Dec 31st and names like Mr. John, Mr. James, and Mr. William.

THE CHURCH. TORONTO, NOVEMBER 15, 1849. For table of contents, see corner of next page.

REPUBLICAN ARISTOCRACY. A constitutional convention has recently been held in Frankfort, Kentucky, at which the question of slavery was discussed in all its various forms and varieties. The conclusion unanimously came to was that emancipation, under any circumstances, was to be deprecated as inimical alike to the bondman and his owner...

SCOBIE AND BALFOUR'S ALMANAC. The number (we had almost said volume) of this Annual, for the ensuing year, which is now lying before us, fully sustains the reputation of its predecessors. It is a perfect cyclopedia of commercial, legal, and general information, indispensable alike to the professional man and the trader...

FROM OUR ENGLISH FILES. The quarterly returns of the revenue, just published, exhibit an aggregate increase, both on the quantity and value of the duties, of nearly one million sterling...

NEWS BY THE CAMBRIDGE. The Steamer Cambria has arrived at Halifax. Letters from Venice state that a Russian courier had arrived there with the intelligence that the Czar would not press for the extradition of the Hungarian refugees...

THE CHURCH. TORONTO, NOVEMBER 15, 1849. For table of contents, see corner of next page.

MORNING PRAYER FOR A FAMILY. O Lord, make speed to save us. O Lord, make haste to help us. O God, who hast led us together through the same covenant and fellowship, in the mystical body of his Son Christ our Lord, grant us grace unto us to know the blessed Sacrament in all its parts and parts, that we may come to the most acceptable part, which thou hast ordered for them that indignately receive thee, through the death of our Lord Jesus...

REPUBLICAN ARISTOCRACY. A constitutional convention has recently been held in Frankfort, Kentucky, at which the question of slavery was discussed in all its various forms and varieties. The conclusion unanimously came to was that emancipation, under any circumstances, was to be deprecated as inimical alike to the bondman and his owner...

SCOBIE AND BALFOUR'S ALMANAC. The number (we had almost said volume) of this Annual, for the ensuing year, which is now lying before us, fully sustains the reputation of its predecessors. It is a perfect cyclopedia of commercial, legal, and general information, indispensable alike to the professional man and the trader...

FROM OUR ENGLISH FILES. The quarterly returns of the revenue, just published, exhibit an aggregate increase, both on the quantity and value of the duties, of nearly one million sterling...

NEWS BY THE CAMBRIDGE. The Steamer Cambria has arrived at Halifax. Letters from Venice state that a Russian courier had arrived there with the intelligence that the Czar would not press for the extradition of the Hungarian refugees...