INTOLREANCE.-The school committee of Lowell, Mass., refuse to acknowledge the certificate of scholarabip given by the Sisters of Notre Dame to such of their pupils, under 15 years of age, as may wish to obtain employment in the cotton mills. The Lowell Patriot regards it as an evidence of bigotry unworthy of honorable men, and says that it is because the Sisters of Notredame are Catholics that their pupils are to be subjected to this serious in convenience. Boston Pilot

The entire village of Westport, Penn., on the Lehigh river was washed away during the flood, the other day, and a great many lives were lost. Only three out of 300 houses were left standing. The loss of property, mostly in lumber, is very great.

THE MONASTERY OF THE GREAT ST. BERNARD.— The celebrated Hospice of the Great St. Bernard is well known to all European travellers, and indeed to all the world. Its little band of secluded Monks living in their mountain fastness on nearly the very summit of one of the principal passes of the Alps, its hearty indiscriminating hospitality to all wayfarers in this inclement region, its noble breed of dogs with their singular training and wonderful sagacity, its well-devised system for succoring travellers overtaken by the snow storms, are "familiar in our mouths as household words." The most remarkable of their modern guests was a man dressed "en bourgeois" with a groy great coat and a sort of fur cap, who in with a grey great coat and a sort of lat cap, who in the year 1800, alone, unattended by any one but a single guide, rang the bell of the great gate and de-sired to see "Il Superiore," and who, on the latter making his appearance, abruptly addressed him thus: "I am Napoleon Bonaparte, the first Consul of France. I cross the Alus as Hannibal did before me, I am going to engage the Austriaus, my army follows me, and will require provisions, the head of the column will be here in twenty-four hours, it numbers 30,000, you will provide bread, cheese, and, if possible, wine, they will occupy six days in passing!" The Superior bowed, and said the hospitality of the Monastery should not fail, every energy was exerted, and the result was that every soldier as he passed, received a loaf, cheese, and half a bottle of wine. It will hardly os credited that on the possessions which so long enabled these simple-hearted men to dispense their noble hospitalities to all comers, the hand of modern rapacity has at length been laid, and that those who, for 000 years, have entertained or rescued from a cruel death all travellers alike without distinction of nation or creed, are at length themselves driven to solicit aid from the charitable. On the one side of the frontier the Swiss "Radicals," and on the other the King of Sardinia, have confiscated every acre of their pos-sessions The brethren, thus deprived of their all, have been obliged to despatch some of their number to England and other more distant quarters to en-list the sympathies of their well-wishers—of the two who have been sent to our own quarter of the globe, one, Brother Antonio Gioth, is now in Bernuda, having made the tour of the West India Islands, and being now on his way to New York, whence he will return direct to Europe. Frn. Gioth is in possession of recommendations and certificates from every source which can command confidence and respect. The Governors of our various dependencies, as well as the officials of those belonging to other nations, have responded nobly to the appeal; several Bishops of the Church of England have contributed, declaring it to be an honor to forward so noble an object; our own Government has headed the list of Bermudian contributors with a handsome donation; Colonel Munro has also subscribed liberally, and the soldiers of the 39th regt, have, with his approval, followed the example of their Colonel. All classes and creeds have recognised the appeal of this interesting and unassuming wanderer, and if our Islands should, by their liberality, rival or eclipse the generosity of neighboring Colonies, we can only say this will be one of those acts with which no sharer in it will reproach himself hereafter. - Bermuda Royal Gazette, April 1st.

JERUSALEM .- According to the Jewish Chronicle, the foundation of the inner wall of Jerusalem (referred to in Lam. ii. 8, under the name of rampart, and also Isaiah xxii. 11, where the two walls are spoken of) has lately been discovered. As far as it is laid bare, it consists of very large stones, and the solid masonry is just the same as that of the western wail of the Temple. It is about four yards distant from the present wall. The spot was visited by many Europeans, among whom were mentioned the Austrian and French consuls, as also by Dr. Rosen the Prussian consul, distinguished for his topographical knowledge of the Holy City; and they all agreed in pronouncing this remnant of heavy antiquity the foundation of the 'rampart.' It was discoverd while digging to lay the foundation of a new building-the Abode of Peace, erecting for the Jewish poor, at the expense of a deceased benefactor. (In the same plot of ground was also discovered a very large and equally ancient cistern, 36 yards long by 91 wide and 14 deen. - Builder.

NEVER POSTPONE .- Never say you will do presently what your reason or conscience tells you should be done now. No man ever shaped his own destiny, or the destinies of others, wisely and well, who dealt much in 'presentlies.' Look at Nature; she never postpones. When the time arrives for the buds to open, they open - for the leaves to fall, they fall.
Look upward! the shising worlds never put off their rising or their setting The comets even, erratic as they are, keep their appointments, and eclipses are always punctual to the minute. There are no delays in any of the movements of the universe, which have oven predetermined by the absolute fiat of the Creator. lian, however, being a free agent, can postpone the performance of his duty; and he does so frequently to his own destruction The drafts Crawn by Indolence apon the Future are pretty sure to be dishonoured.
Make Now your banker. Do not say you will economise presently, for presently you may be bankrupt, nor that you will repent and make atonement presently, for presently you may be judged. Bear in mind the important fact, taught alike by the history of nations, rulers, and private individuals, that in at least three cases out of five, presently is too late.

Fun at Home. - Don't be afraid of a little fun at home, good people! Don't shut up your house lest the sun should fade your carpets; and your hearts, lest a hearty laugh should shake down some of the musty old cobwebs there. If you want to ruin four sons, let them think that all wirth and social enjoyment must be left on the threshold without, when they come home at night. When once a home is regarded as only a place to eat, drink, and sleep in, then is begun what ends in gambling houses and degradation. Young people must have fun and relaxation somewhere; if they do not find it at their own hearth-stones, it will be sought at other and less pro-fitable places. Therefore, let the fire burn brightly at night, and make your home delightful with all those little arts that parents so perfectly understand. Don't repress the buoyant spirits of your children; half an hour of merriment round the bright fire of a home blots out the remembrance of many a care and annoyance during the day, and the best safeguard they can take with them into the world is the unseen influence of a bright little domestic sanctum.

A cockney conducted two ladies to the observatory to see an eclipse of the moon. They were too late, the eclipse was over, and the ladies were disappointed. 'Oh,' exclaimed our hero, 'don't fret, I man, and I am sure he will begin again.'

He that is truly polite knows how to contradict equally remote from an insidious complaisance and a low familiarity.

LAST GREAT WORK

Just Published, uniform with Farmen Faunu's other Forks, Price in Cloth 75 cts.; Ct. Gt. Edges, $1.25.—By Muil, on receipt of the price in Gold, or P. O. Stamps. BETHLEHEM, CONTENTS. Chap, I-The Bosom of the Eternal Father. Chap, II-The Bosom of Mary,-Chap, III-The Midnight Cave .- Chap. IV-The first Worshippers Chap. V .- The Infant God. - Chap. VI -- Soul and body - Ghop. Vil-Calvary before its Time. - Chap. VIII-Heaven Already - Chap. IX-The feet of the Eternal Father.

The Title and Table of Contents suggests the character of this work, which the Rev. Author designates in the following Dedication: "This Treatise on the Sacred Infancy of our Most Dear and Blessed Redeemer, is laid with the most Tender Devotion, the most Humble Confidence, and the most Reverential Worship, at the Feet of Saint Joseph. the Spouse of Mary, and the Great Foster-Father of our Lord."

The name of the distinguished Author, whose Works have already become so popular in England and this country, as well as on the Continent, where they have been translated, and met with an immense sale, is sufficient invite attention to this past production of his genius, learning and picty. Like Father Faber's other Works, it abounds in passages of rare learning, exquisite beauty, graceful imagery and most tender picty. To at least many of the 50,000 who have read his other Works, particulary his "All for Jesus" this last production of his genius, and still more of his deep, active love for that same ever blessed Saviour of then, will be a more than welcome visitor; an offering better than treasures of gold and silver. If any were at this moment, when thrones are crumbling, and nations are falling to pieces or being humbled to the dust, it is in the stable, and by the crib of the Babe of Bethlehem, that the proud and the wise of the world may learn the worth of the saying: 'Vanity of vanities, and all is vanity; except to love God, and to serve Him alone."

Universally esteemed as the Most Popular Devotional Works Published during the present Century. One of the most eloquent and distinguished clergy. men in the United States, in writing an Introduction to one of Father Faber's Works, says:

"We turn to this last work of the Rev. Dr Faber with sentiments of gratitude to heaven, and hope for its abundant blessing on the teachings of such a guide, which our most earnest language would but faintly express. If the power to conceive and convey to others the sublime, and at the same time, the most practical truths that can interest the human mind, be a title to the homage of men, then has Father Faber established for himself a claim, which no length of years nor change of circumstances can efface. Few writers since the days of St. Francis de Sales, have made more Christian hearts bow in loving adoration before our tabernacies than the author of 'All for Jesus.' It contains the matter of the fermer edition, which was in three volumes, and is considerably improved and enlarged. Constant reference is made to the laws and usages of our country, which must necessatily direct and modify the application of moral principles hald down by European divines. The retations of master and servant, which are scarcely touched on in foreign treatise, are here developed and defined. The various contracts in use amorg us are explained, and the respective obligations of the parties are discussed. In many other matters of parties are discussed in the Missionary and practice, direction is afforded to the Missionary and Confessor, which is particularly adapted to local circumstances, inasmuch as the general discipline of the Church is mitigated by special concessions, or

iepi copus Bultimorensis, Secundus Curis Auctoris, The first edition of the Theologia Dogmatica being exhausted, a revised edition has been published, in the famous establishment of Hanicq, (now Mr. Desmin,) at Malines, Belgium, in conjunction with Messrs. Murphy & Co. The whole work, formerly consisting of tour columns, is now reduced to three, although considerante additions have been made to it; including an Elaborate Defence of the Dogma of the Immuculate Conception, and a Catalogue of the Fathers, and Exclusionatical Writers, with an orwarde discrimination of their genuine works, from others that have passed under their names. This work appears under the especial sanction of the Cardinal Archbishop of Malines, who has been pleased to signify a very high estimate of its merits. It is issued in a very neat style, in three volumes, of about 500 pages double column, Svo., at the very low price of $2 per volume. This edition, though much enlarged, is reduced to S6 instead of $10-a little more than half the price of the former edition, so as to place it within the reach of Theological Seminaries, Students, &c., to whom a liberal discount will be made when purchased in quantities. E3 Early orders respectfully solicited. MURPHY & CO., Publishers, Baltimore.
