The Methodist New Connection at their asnnal meeting in Beltast have passed resolutions that Mr. Gladstone's Home Rule Bill means priest rule; that its pas. sage would mean the arrest of commerce the promotion of poverty, crime and bloodshed; the injury of the whole em. pire and ruin of Ireland.

CAVAN

The most Rev. Dr. Finegan, Beshop of Kilmore, officiated at the solemn and imposing ceremony of the profession of a uun, on May 10th, in the town church. The young lady was Miss Eliza Markey, in religion Sister Mary Francis, second daughter of Mr. Thomas Markey, Esq. Cootehill. and niece of the late Very Rev. Dr. O'Reilly, P.P., V. G., Cootehill founder of the convent in which here is the first profession.

DOWN,

On May 31, an old woman was burned to death at a townland called Lenaugh, between Ballymena and Cookstown junction. It appears that she had for many lived by her self, her husband having died two decades ago. By his death she became sole possessor of an extensive area of land and houses, &c. The one in which she resided herself seems to have been above the ordinary description of rural dwelling.

TIPPERARY.

On May 13th, at St. Bridget's convent Goresbridge, two young ladies received the black veil from the hands of the Most Rev. Dr. Lvnch Coadjutor Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin. The young ladies who made the final vows of profession were Miss Bride Teresa Walshe in religion Sister Mary Berchman's Jos eph. second daughter of Mr. Edmond Walshe; of Cahir, County Tipperary aud Miss Maria Tobin, in religion Sister Mary Dominic Joseph. daughter of Mr. Richard Tobin, Durrus, West Cork,

The Moy will hardly be deepened his year, The Lord Lieutenant has declined to receive a deputation of the Harbor Commissioners who wished to approach him with a view to a loan tor the purpose of improving the navigation of the river.

ROSCOMMON

There died, last month, at Castleren, in his 96th year, Peter Dalby, a venerable man, whose like was seldom met He was a long.life Repealer, and a strict adherent to the principles of total absti ence since the initiation of Father Mah hew's movement.

CORK

On May 10, Mr. James A. Forrest, Upper Riverstown, was evicted from his holding for non-payment of a year and a half's rent amounting to £105. While in Mr. Forrest's possession the land had increased almost fifty per cent in productiveness, he having expended a large amount of capital in permanent improvements. The greatest sympathy is felt throughout the neighborhood with Mr.

Advices from India bring particulars of aplendid act of bravery performed by lieutenant Harry Murphy, R.N., second on of Mr. James. I.Ms.rpy. of Gienbrook Mr. Murphy. is serving on board the Reindeer, which is stationed in the Persian Gulf. A launch he was in charge of was upset by a heavy sea, and but for the pluck of Lieutenant Murphy two of the crew would have perished. The Indian press bestow great praise on the young Irishman's heroic conduct.

On May 11, Mr Murry, of Cork put politics. He had no recommends to make up for auction at the Jail. Kinsale, six in this direction, but desired to enter his milch cows and two horses, the property solemn protest against remaining longer Nyhan, for rent due to the amount of £153. The cattle were bought by the landord's representative for an angle of the room unless it was provided with a fire escape. As landford's representative for 27 pounds. matters now stood a fire on the stairs

The funeral of the late Rev. Richard Kelly. P. P., who had been for several years parish priest of Poulful, county Wexford, took place on Sunday, May 9th. and was attended by the Bishop of the diocese, Most Rev. Dr. Browne, and a large number of the clergy; as also by a vast concourse ol persons of every persuasion.

DUBLIN

On May 12th, Mrs. Barry, wite of Lord Justice Barry, died at the residence of her husband, Fitzwilliam square, Dub-

A very interesting ceremony took place on May 8, in the boardroom of the North Dublin Union Workhouse, North Brunswick street, the occasion being that of presenting to Mr. Thomas H. At kinson, Clerk of the Union, on behalf of the officers of the instution a magnificent silver epergne and an illuminated address as a token of the esteem in which they hold him.

GALWAY

The Royal Irish Constabulary Fund (now closed) for the relief of distress in the West, amounted to 1,000 pounds.

Mr. Tuke, before leaving Ireland, distributed no less than fifteen hundred tons of seed among the famishing peasants of the West coast, The total ex pense of his benevolent operations amounted to about 2,500pds—an outlay that was met by private contributions, chiefly among his personal friends.

KILKENNY On May 4th, Miss Kathleen Birch; daughter of Michael Birch, Esq., Keatingston, in religion Sister Mary Andrew received the religious habit in the con. vent of the Sisters of Charity, St, Aune's Miltown, Dublin.

KILDARE,

The tenants of the Duke of Leinster, near Kildare, lately asked for a reduc tion of thirty per cent, and were refused and they continued to resist the demand for the full rent. However, with one exception, they all subsequently paid. The one dissentient held out, and the two tablespoonfuls of flour and when you advanced on consignments of goods. Terms and ord has now settled by remitting have a thick batter, the liquor (strained liberal and all business strictly confidentian one year's rent out of two due, which means a reduction of fifty per cent on this and last year's rent as well. The moral is obvious,

LIMBRICK

Mr. Thomas Revington, whose name had been long associated with a prosper. ous drapery establishment in Limerick has become the purchaser of a disused brewery in that city, which is to be converted into a me nure factory. LCUTH

The London Truth says:-'Ireland is coming to our rescue, and intends to supply us with systers. On Lord Wall court's fisheries at Ardre a large amount of money is being exeended to work the existing oyster beds on modern princip les. 'Natives' are bred there, and French oysters are found to fatten there with such rapidity that theysoon become even fatter than 'natives.'

DERRY. The members of the Maghera house and Labor Lague, numbering about one hun dred and fifty, accompanied by his many girls and women, turned out to Mr. Rob ert Stockman, singing a song composed on the league, by Mr. James McQnillien Arriving at the farm they set all the potatoes, about five acres. On there return at six o' clock a substantial repast was provided for them at the Maghera Hotel When about to separate Mr. Walsh, in a few well selected words, thanked them for their kindness to him.

How the English Amuse Themselves.

The English colony in Brussels has lately established a foot ball club, and oue of the papers gives the follow ing account of a recent match. The arena was indicated by a row of flags. The ball was solemuly placed between two camps A vigorous kick announces the beginning of the game. A number of young men are at once seen rolling on the ground, entangled one with another and bustling each other about. As soon as one of the players, bruised and lacerated' seizes the ball, a mob persues him-throws him over _buries him beneath a pile of arms and legs seizes by force the precious prey which the brave fellow presses to his heart. A curions effect is the grave silence during the battle; these young gentlemen are careful not to look as it they were there for play. The frenzied and brutal strife lasted for more than an nour. Many passers by noticing the piti able condition of the players inquired if there had been an accident No; it is only the English amusing themselves.'

THE LIME KILN CLUB.

The librarian reported that he had received during the last quarter 522 volumes, 520 of which were almanacs pub lishes by the poets, St. Jacob and Hos tetter. He had now over 18,000 alman. acs on hand and anybody wanting to know the date of the month for fitty years back or ahead could be instantly accommodated. The library had been open this wintersfive nights in the week from 7 to 10 o'clock, and the average attendance had been thirty.two.

It grieved him through and through to be compelled to add that a majority of those dropping in spent most of the time in chewing plug tobacco and talking politics. He had no recommends to make would compel him to jump from a third. story window. The matter was canvassed pro and con by several members, and the president finally dismissed the subject by saying:

"I has ten feet of rope at de house which I will bring down and in case of a fiah de librarian kin splice on his suspenders and drop de rest of de way
