

In Abidjan

- informed the ADB project liaison officer of your visit and its purpose and of the meetings desired?
- given priority to meeting with the ADB project liaison officer in the Embassy's commercial section, in order to discuss your project or projects and leave your documentation, including Bank registration forms, copy of your letter of intent, brochures, etc., to be followed up with Bank authorities?
- met with the project and loan officers at the Bank who are responsible for your project, in order to obtain all your information and to express your interest?
- upon returning to Canada, followed up regularly with the executing agency, your field officer, the Abidjan Embassy or the Africa Trade Development Division at External Affairs and International Trade Canada?