9. Sculpture, Cafeteria Court, by Arthur Handy.

This work, located in the garden court off the main floor cafeteria, is a simple form made of strong flat planes of sheet metal painted with epoxy in a deep red. The simplicity of the form contrasts with the broken shapes of the trees, the granite paving and the multifaceted elevation of the building. The hard-edge quality of the sculpture and its lack of small detail provides relief from the multi-detail of all other elements in this "court-yard" space.

Arthur Handy received a Bachelor of Fine Arts, Magna Cum Laude, 1959, and a Master of Fine Arts, 1960, from New York State College of Ceramics, Alfred, New York. He headed the Ceramics Department at the Ontario College of Art, 1960-66, and was Artist-in-Residence and Faculty Member at the New School of Art, Toronto, 1966-68. At present he resides in Toronto, Ontario.
