

State shall have no jurisdiction over any proceedings, regardless of their form, intended to challenge, set aside or otherwise modify convictions or sentences handed down in the Sending State.

ARTICLE VI

An Offender delivered for execution of a sentence under this Treaty may not be detained, tried or sentenced in the Receiving State for the same offence upon which the sentence to be executed is based. For purposes of this Article, the Receiving State will not prosecute for any offence the prosecution of which would have been barred under the law of that State, if the sentence had been imposed by a court, federal, state, or provincial, of the Receiving State.

ARTICLE VII

If either Party enters into an agreement for the transfer of sanctions with any other State, the other Party shall cooperate in facilitating the transit through its territory of Offenders being transferred pursuant to such agreement. The Party intending to make such a transfer will give advance notice to the other Party of such transfer.

ARTICLE VIII

1. This Treaty shall be subject to ratification and shall enter into force on the date on which instruments of ratification are exchanged. The exchange of instruments of ratification shall take place at Ottawa as soon as possible.

2. The present Treaty shall remain in force for three years from the date upon which it enters into force. Thereafter, the Treaty shall continue in force until thirty days from the date upon which either Party gives written notice to the other Party of its intention to terminate the Treaty.
