

During the course of his visit, Mr. Dunkel will review the facilities for the Mid Term Review Conference at Palais des Congrès in Montreal, and will address the annual conference of the International Business Council of Canada (IBCC) in Toronto.

The Geneva-based GATT, of which Canada is a founding member, currently has ninety-six member countries. The Uruguay Round is the eighth in a series of trade liberalizing negotiations held under the GATT since the organization was formed in 1947.