

corporations to which Mr. Sellar drew our attention under section 96 of his report. Are there any more questions anybody in the committee wants to ask?

If not, we might adjourn.

Mr. Taylor, I think I will be expressing the opinion of everybody in the committee here in thanking you and Mr. Balls for attending, and thanking you both for the very interesting and full explanations you have given us.