Mr. Workman moved that the Bill be not now read, but that it be resolved "that it is not in the public interest to impose taxes on coal, coke, flour and wheat, inasmuch as the said taxation will fall with peculiar and exceptional severity on certain sections of the Dominion." The Finance Minister, the other day, in announcing his 3 o'clock policy, had said that the whole of the Ministers, without exception, were against such taxation, and he hoped that they would accept the amendment.

A division was at once taken—Yeas, 66; nays, 75.

Yeas—Messrs. Béchard, Benoit, Bodwell, Bolton, Bourassa, Bowman, Brousseau, Burpee, Caldwell, Cartwright, Casault, Cheval, Connell, Coupal, Currier, Dorion, Dufresne, Fortier, Galt (Sir A. M. Workman propose que le projet de loi ne soit pas lu maintenant, et qu'il soit résolu qu'il est contraire à l'intérêt public d'imposer des taxes sur le charbon, le coke, la farine et le blé, vu que ladite taxe toucherait avec une rigueur spéciale certains secteurs de la Puissance. L'autre jour, quand le ministre des Finances nous a fait part de sa politique de dernière heure, il a dit que tous les ministres, sans exception, étaient opposés à une telle taxe, et il espère qu'ils accepteront l'amendement.

L'amendement, mis aux voix, est rejeté par 75 voix contre 66.
