

Mr. Monteith: The minister has gone.

Some hon. Members: Oh, oh.

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. There has been an objection. According to the standing order if all members do not wish to sit and ten members rise the motion will not be put.

Mr. MacInnis (Cape Breton South): The Chairman called it ten o'clock.

And more than ten members having risen:

Mr. Speaker: Ten members having risen the motion will not be put.

EXPO '67—REQUEST FOR ASSURANCE CONCERNING ACCOMMODATION

[Translation]

Mr. Roger Régimbal (Argenteuil-Deux-Montagnes): Mr. Speaker, with your permission, in the absence of the minister concerned,

Proceedings on Adjournment Motion the minister of Trade and Commerce (Mr. Winters) and his Parliamentary Secretary, it was understood that—

Mr. Speaker: Order. May I suggest to the member for Argenteuil-Deux-Montagnes to wait until order is restored in the house. I am sure a good number of his colleagues are very anxious to hear him.

Mr. Régimbal: Mr. Speaker, in view of the absence of the minister and of his Parliamentary Secretary, it was agreed that the discussion of this question could be put off until next Thursday, if the house finds this agreeable.

Mr. Speaker: Is it agreed that the question asked by the hon. member, which was to be debated tonight, will now stand and be considered next week?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

[English]

Pursuant to section 4 of standing order No. 2, this house stands adjourned until Monday next at 2.30 o'clock p.m.

It being six minutes after ten o'clock the house adjourned.
