BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Dingwall: Mr. Speaker, I thought that perhaps in the spirit of co-operation the government House leader and the Minister of Finance might want to give consideration to the following motion:

That the remaining question necessary to dispose of the budget debate, Ways and Means Proceeding No. 18, be put and divided on immediately and that the two days that remain in the budget debate be added to the number of allotted days in the present supply period.

That is to indicate the co-operation of the Official Opposition.

Mr. Andre: I think that opening position has some basis for future negotiation, which I will be glad to engage in with the hon. member.

Mr. Speaker: It being seven-thirty o'clock p.m., this House stands adjourned until Tuesday, at eleven o'clock, pursuant to Standing Order 24(1).

The House adjourned at 7:28 p.m.
