

4th August 1933.

Thank you very much for your note of the 1st and for the clipping from the Guardian. I also had a nice letter from Macmillan, the Minister of Education. Altogether the holding of our Library School at Charlottetown seems to have been regarded as an event of unusual importance.

Colonel Bovey, whom I have seen, speaks happily of his experiences there and is convinced that the liaison between the Island and the University has been strengthened. He also brings me attractive reports of the bathing beaches and the salubrious climate, confirming what you have so often said, that Prince Edward Island must be a splendid place for a summer vacation.

Remember me kindly to the Colonel and to the Lindsays.

With all good wishes, I am

Ever yours faithfully,

Sir Andrew Macphail, O.B.E., LL.D.,
Orwell, P.E.I.
