of the brave and free, With heart and voice, We now re-joice, To sing in praise of thee!

cres. f

2 From sea to sea our land
Extends her vast domain,
Mid' scenes sublime and grand
We sing this glad refrain:—Cuo.

3 We'll welcome with a cheer,
Each hardy son of toil;
For happy homes are here,
With fruitful virgin soil!—Cuo.

4 Let prairie, wood, and field
Re-echo this our song:
Our sons shall never yield,
What rights to them belong!—Cuo.

5 Then wave our flag on high
The Maple-Leaf and Rose,
For Canada we'll die
Or vanquish all her foes!—Cuo.
