

NEMESIS

OR

LITERARY PHILISTINISM.

A POETICAL SATIRE, WITH PREFACE,

DEDICATED TO PROFESSOR GOLDWIN SMITH,
The most Eminent Example from a patriotic standpoint of Literary Philistinism, Hessianism, and Disloyalty of modern times.

INTENDED AS

A protest against disloyalty, actual and constructive,

AND

A tribute to the valor and patriotism of the Colonial Contingents, who so gloriously upheld the honor of the EMPIRE in Africa, and also to every other subject whose
"heart within him burned" to the same end.

BY

JOHN W. DOUGLAS, of Osgoode Hall, Toronto, Canada,
Barrister-at-Law, late Senior Major of the 42d Battalion.

WITH A

couple of Canadian Patriotic Songs by the same.

SHELBURNE, ONTARIO, CANADA, JULY 1903.

*MOTTO—Such is the patriot's boast where'er we roam;
His first best country ever is his home.*

GOLDSMITH.
