SUFFS' CAMPAIGN GIVEN THREE MONTHS

At the End of That Time Either the Women or the Government Will Have to Give In, According to Lloyd's—Militants Burned Another House Yesterday.

Special Cable to The World. LONDON, May 9.—(Copyright.)—It is the general belief at the headquarters of Lloyd's Insurance that the present situation cannot last longer than three months and that if the militant women maintain their suffragette campaign of violence for a longer period, the government must give in. That, of course, is merely their assumption. A militant suffragette "arsenal squad" was out this morning and succeeded in destroying by fire a large untenanted manufactory near Barrow-in-Furness, Lancashire. A quantity of suffragette literature was scattered on the lawns surrounding the house.

BORDEN WILL BANISH CIGARETS, SAY LADIES

W. C. T. U. Believes Premier Will Introduce Stern Prohibitory Legislation. MONTREAL, May 9.—(Can. Press.)—The introduction in the Dominion Parliament of an anti-cigarette bill as a government measure, was no less a sponsor than Right Hon. R. L. Borden was the surprising event foreshadowed this afternoon at the convention of Hochelaga County W.C.T.U., held at the First Baptist Church. The matter came out quite incidentally thru the passing of a resolution thanking Hon. Mr. Borden for his promise to introduce this legislation, which has been vigorously advocated and sought after by the Dominion W.C.T.U. for several years past.

"YOU'RE A KNOCKER" AND "TLL GET YOU"

These Words Were Exchanged in Port Hope and the Fight Was On.

PORT HOPE, May 9.—(Special.)—"You're a knocker," said Lieut.-Col. Harry Ward, ex-M.P., to Dr. McKinley at the annual meeting of the local hospital board this afternoon, which started the trouble. Dr. McKinley, who is Port Hope's leading medic, had in crisp words criticized the methods of preparing hospital patients for surgical operations. Then the colonel launched his accusation as above. "I was one of the first to advocate building the new hospital, and you were the first to talk of resigning from the board when you couldn't get your way," retorted the doctor warmly. "Tll stop your mouth," this is what the colonel is reported to have uttered in sparkling repartee. Then the meeting adjourned.

SIX OF CREW WERE BURNED IN STEAMER

VANCOUVER, B.C., May 9.—(Can. Press.)—Hemmed in flames which started from some unknown cause, six members of the crew of the steamer Ophir, which sailed from Vancouver last night and later tied up at the Brunswick Cannery, Canoe Pass, were burned to death in a fire which is still burning and will totally destroy the vessel. The fire started at 3:30 this afternoon. There were 11 men in the crew. The steamer arrived too late for unloading operations to be started until daylight today, the crew retiring after tying up at the cannery wharf. Five of the crew, including Captain Anderson, the chief engineer, the mate, cook and one deckhand, slept in the fore-cabin of the boat. All these were saved.

HOPE TO FORGE FIGHT IN OPEN

WASHINGTON, May 9.—(Can. Press.)—Republicans of the senate leaped eagerly into their fight against the Underwood Tariff bill when it was brought over from the house today, and precipitated an issue by attempting to override the decision of the Democrats to consider the measure without public hearings. Forerunning the assault that the Republicans propose to wage against the schedules from sugar to zinc, Senator Penrose sought to have the bill referred to the finance committee with instructions for public hearings, after Senator Simmons, chairman of the committee, had moved for reference without instructions. Action on this phase was pending when the senate adjourned last Tuesday, several Republican leaders predicting that they would win their contention and that public hearings would be forced over the heads of the finance committee. Democratic leaders, however, disputed this prediction.

QUITS BANKING FOR TOBACCO BUSINESS

Count Albert Mongelas Has Offended Bavarian Nobility by Becoming President of a Cigaret Firm, But in the Meantime He's Making Lots of Money.

Berlin, May 9.—(Copyright.)—Some German newspapers have opened an attack on Count Albert Mongelas for offending the Bavarian nobility by embarking in the tobacco business in New York. He is vice-president of Mathues Bros. cigarette manufacturers. The count's father is Count Edward Mongelas. His cousin, Count Joseph Mongelas, is lord chamberlain to the Pope. Another cousin, Count Adolf Mongelas, is in the diplomatic service and was formerly third secretary to the German embassy at Washington. Count Adolf was attached to the German embassy in Tokio, when the Taft around the world party reached Japan. At the dinner given there he met Miss Fanny Dickinson Hazelius of Grand Rapids, Mich., and thence was one of the many marriages that resulted from the tour. Count Adolf was one who fell under the Kaiser's ban against American marriages by German diplomats.

CHATHAM PRINTERS BURNED TO DEATH WHEN PLANET OFFICE WAS DESTROYED

Alex. McDougal, Foreman, and Robert Birch, Linotype Operator, Did Not Have Time to Escape With Three Other Workmen—Building a Total Loss and Damage Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars.

CHATHAM, Ont., Saturday, May 10.—(Special.)—Two men were burned to death and three others had very narrow escapes when the Chatham Planet office was completely destroyed by fire between 9 and 12 o'clock Friday night. Alex. McDougal, foreman of the composing room, and Robert Birch, a linotype operator, have not been seen since the fire was discovered, and altho the ruins are too hot yet to search for them, there is little doubt but that they were burned to death. Charles Hicklin and H. Premo, pressmen, and Arthur Cartier, linotype operator, had narrow escapes, but managed to get out of the building. The office and plant were completely destroyed, with a loss of $75,000; insurance is $50,000. The flames broke out in the stock room at 9 o'clock, and as the building was very dry the fire spread with great rapidity. Shooting up the elevator shaft, the fire spread to the composing and press rooms. The five men were working together in the room, and had to run for windows. It is thought that McDougal and Birch were overcome by the heavy smoke from the ink before reaching the windows and fell back into the flames. The firemen and citizens of Chatham did everything in their power to get to the imprisoned men, but it was impossible to get within several feet of the building, so intense was the heat. The flames were not under control until after midnight, and the search for the missing men will be started as soon as the embers are cool enough for anyone to go near them. The Planet will be published from The News office until the building can be rebuilt.

DUKE SEEKING TO OBTAIN FREEDOM

Duchess of Westminster Is Likely to Enter Counter Suit—Marital Troubles Often Aired.

Special to The Toronto World. NEW YORK, May 9.—A cable to The Times from London says: "The Duchess of Westminster is reported to have been engaged to a man named Duke of Westminster, and who is well known in cosmopolitan society. The case when it comes to trial is likely to create a sensation. The matrimonial infelicity of the Duchess has long been a subject of gossip, and reports that one or the other of the pair intended to seek divorce have been frequent for some years. The reports have not had a legal foundation hitherto. Troubles Well Known. The domestic troubles of Hugh Richard Arthur Grosvenor, second Duke of Westminster, and his Duchess have for some time been public property, and divorce proceedings have been freely predicted. The Duke was born in 1871, and they have two children, Lady Ursula Grosvenor, aged 11, and Lady Mary aged 3. The Duchess, daughter of Col. Cornwallis West, is a sister of the Princess of Wales, and her only brother is Geo. Cornwallis West, the second husband of the former Lady Randolph Churchill. The Duke of Westminster was born in 1879, is one of the richest men in England, owns 30,000 acres in Cheshire and Flintshire, and 600 acres in London. He is chiefly known as a sportsman, especially as a keen poloist. The Duke is paying the expenses of the British polo team that is now on its way to this country to compete with the American team for the international championship. He had a great deal to do with the selection of the English players, and personally chose the ponies that are being brought over, securing England and Ireland for the best animals obtainable. The open break between the pair came a few months ago. After a violent scene, the duke is said to have ordered the duchess out of his town residence, Grosvenor House, following a ball given at Buckingham Palace by the King and Queen, to which the duchess was invited and the duke pointedly was not asked. In March the couple formally separated. The duke's name was not entirely free from scandal before his marriage, and his association with Gertrude Miller, an actress, widely known in Canada, chiefly for her singing of "Schneider" in "Miss Hook of Holland," for several years past has kept his affairs before the public. Of Distinguished Lineage. The Duke of Alba, named as correspondent, is the descendant of an English king and a Spanish grandee with a fortune. His full name is Jacobo Maria Del Pilar Carlos Stuart Fitz-James, tenth Duke of Berwick and seventeenth Duke of Marlboro. He was born at Madrid in 1878. The first duke was a son of James II. and Arabella Churchill, sister of the Duke of Marlboro. The Duke of Alba is a bachelor. Five or six years ago it was rumored that he was engaged to Miss Mathilda Townsend of Washington and Philadelphia. His father died at the Holland House, New York, in October, 1901. He had come here as a guest of Sir Thomas Lipton to watch the America's cup races.

WOULD DESTROY HISTORIC PLACE

Suffragette Plot to Wreck Blenheim Palace "Tipped Off" to Duke of Marlboro.

Special Cable to The World. LONDON, May 9.—(Copyright.)—Blenheim Palace, the historic residence of the Duke of Marlboro, has been marked for destruction by the militants. News of a plot to burn the palace and particularly to destroy its famous pictures, reached the duke several days ago. He immediately ordered that facilities hitherto freely accorded the public to view the palace be completely withdrawn for the present. Blenheim is one of the show places of England and has been freely open to visitors when the duke was not in residence. The picture gallery contains many valuable works, among them a magnificent series of portraits of the successive duchesses of Marlboro, including the present duchess.

MRS. JOHN FORD DIED IN LONDON

She Was Extremely Popular in Anglo-American Smart Society, But Very Delicate.

Special Cable to The World. LONDON, May 9.—(Copyright.)—The death took place today of Mrs. John Ford, the elder daughter of Mrs. George Cavendish Bentinck (nee Livingston). Mrs. Ford had been ill two months and underwent an operation about a month ago. It was feared, even if she had recovered, she would have been a permanent invalid. Her husband, who has been in delicate health ever since their marriage, had to return from Switzerland owing to his wife's illness. Mrs. Ford and her sister, Mrs. Burns, were both extremely popular in Anglo-American smart society, where the greatest sympathy is felt. Gramsmen Leaves Town Tonight. Mr. Robson, who closes his Toronto engagement at the Princess Theatre tonight, has the whole town laughing with her. Her entrance at the opening of act second, is one of the funniest scenes ever enacted on the local stage, and goes on of the longest and heartiest laughs on record. There will be a special matinee this afternoon.

GALLERIES OF HOUSE CROWDED BUT NAVAL DEBATE LACKS LIFE WORKING OF CLOSURE SMOOTH

Up to Early Hour This Morning Dramatic Incidents Have Been Entirely Lacking—Dr. Clark of Red Deer Willing to Abide by the New Rules.

OTTAWA, May 9.—(Special.)—The galleries of the house were crowded to suffocation tonight in anticipation of dramatic scenes during the closing hours of the naval debate. The closure vote will not be applied and the actual vote taken until after two o'clock, but at an early hour this morning the debate, which has dragged on since three o'clock this afternoon, was devoid of exciting incident. The preliminary closure went into effect as soon as the house got into committee, limiting every speech to twenty minutes' duration. The members, as a rule, kept well within the limit, including the prime minister and Sir Wilfrid Laurier. None of the amendments has been voted on and clause 2 is nominally under discussion. Foreclosed by Premier. The house got into committee without delay, and Mr. Carroll, the Liberal member for S. Cape Breton, rose to speak. The prime minister, however, also addressed the chair for the purpose of moving the closure motion, and was recognized by the chairman. He made the formal motion that the discussion upon clause 2, 4, 5, and 6, and the proposed clause No. 6 be not further continued. The motion carried by a rising vote—yeas 71, nays 44. Mr. Carroll made a good speech, dealing mainly with the encouragement which might be given the steel, lumber and other industries by establishing Canadian shipyards and building the navy in Canada. The policy of the government, he said, meant sending money out of the country and permitting the steel industry to languish. At this point the chairman called Mr. Carroll to order, he having exceeded the 20 minutes to which he was entitled under the closure rule. Dr. Clark N. Rebel. Mr. Borden said as Mr. Carroll was making the initial statement and had not finished his speech, he saw no reason why he should not be allowed to proceed. Hon. Wm. Pugsley observed that the new rules were unconstitutional and not binding upon the house. He submitted that Mr. Carroll should proceed, but not by grace of the prime minister. Dr. Clark, the Liberal member for Red Deer, said he could not agree with the position taken by Dr. Pugsley. The new rules, whether good or bad, had been regularly adopted, and were binding upon the house. He would go further in saying that if they had been adopted, the rules should be strictly enforced. Mr. Borden said that he had made the suggestion subject to the unanimous consent of the house. If a member felt aggrieved he could object to Mr. Carroll's time being extended. Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that each member would be allowed to speak 20 minutes on each of the clauses. "And then the clauses until 2 o'clock tomorrow morning," said Sir Wilfrid Laurier. "And then the clauses shall fall." (Applause and laughter.) Mr. Carroll said whether the rules were binding on the house or not he thoroughly appreciated the courtesy of the prime minister and would soon conclude. He desired to offer an amendment providing that the contractors for the ships must, as far as practicable, purchase steel and other material in Canada at the current Canadian prices. He was at a loss to know, however, how he could bring this amendment to the attention of the house. In his opinion it should be added to the bill as clause 7. Could he offer the amendment after 2 o'clock? A Later Opportunity. The prime minister said that there were two amendments pending to clause 2, and therefore Mr. Carroll certainly could not offer his amendment at this time. He would have an opportunity if these amendments were disposed of, or later on when the bill came up for third reading. Sir Wilfrid Laurier: "But not after 2 o'clock tomorrow morning." Mr. Borden: "No, at 2 o'clock all amendments undisposed of will be voted on, but no further amendment can be offered in committee." Dr. Edwards (Frontenac) said the Borden government was not opposed to Canadian industries, but it was 1878. He said that the dreadnoughts could be built more efficiently and cheaper in England. The Laurier government, he reminded the house, had purchased many government vessels in the old country. DINEEN'S GOLD AIR STORAGE. Your fur-lined overcoat will come to no good around the house during the summer. It is in danger for 6 or 8 months, and at least unless you have it in a Dineen's Gold Air Storage hanging up it will lose its shape. The best place for your fur-lined overcoat is in a Dineen's Gold Air Storage. The charges are moderate—only $1.50 up, according to the value of the fur. He asked the police authorities to act.
