G. A. Marshall, Hastening to

Ottawa to See Dying Son,

Had to Finish by Train.

Bert Nephew, the driver of the machine that was to have taken A. G. Marshall, the Ottawa contractor, a 300 mile journey on Sunday night to Ottawa, in order that he might reach there in time to see his dying son, as told exclusively in 'The World' explained last night why the journey by train was made instead, and how Mr. Marshall caught the train after it had left Toronto.

After leaving Toronto a speed of 80 miles per hour was attained and 32 miles of the distance between Toronto and Ottawa was made in 45 minutes. On arrival at Ottawa, Mr. Marshall was in a state of collapse, and his condition such that it was impossible for him to continue the trip in a speeding car.

In an endeavor to get his passenger to Ottawa by morning it was proposed that the driver took Mr. Marshall aboard the G. T. R. Brockville train at Ottawa, and at Brockville another G. T. R. train to Smith's Falls was secured. By making close connections at Marshall was thus enabled to catch the Toronto-Ottawa train as it passed through Smith's Falls, and on his arrival at Ottawa found his son still alive. The little boy had been kicked in the head by a horse, and as a fracture of the skull was sustained it is believed his injuries will prove fatal.

Army and Navy Veterans

The regular monthly meeting of the Army and Navy Veterans will be held in their rooms at the Occident Hall, corner Queen and Bathurst streets, this evening at 8 o'clock, and not at the armories. All ex-service men are invited to attend. The veterans' annual excursion will be held on August 16, to Niagara Falls.

GOVERNMENT PROMISES EN-QUIRY.

PRETORIA, July 7.—(Can. Press.)—Gen. Botha and Smuts were close in an endeavor to reach a more satisfactory settlement than that already agreed to. The government has promised to make an immediate enquiry into the matter of caring for the dependents of the killed and injured which the strikers have demanded, but has refused to grant amnesty to those guilty of criminal acts.

The executive of the Railway Servants' Union has notified the railway companies that they will stop work today to show sympathy for the workers killed in the strike. It is expected that the railway men will resume tomorrow, but adds that if the miners decide to remain out, a general strike of railway men throughout the union of South Africa will be called.

NOMINATIONS IN NORTH GREY

OWEN SOUND, July 7.—(Special.)—Colin Cameron (Conservative) and John Macdonald (Liberal) were nominated today to contest the provincial seat for North Grey.

With election only a week ahead, considerable uncertainty as to the result exists, but parties professing to be confident of victory.

SACKVILLE'S

NOTABLE BATTLE

Judge's Charge Was Strongly

Against Plaintiffs, and

Jury's Deliberations

Were Brief.

LONDON, July 7.—(Can. Press.)—

The great estate which the late Sir

John Murray Scott, the eccentric millionaire and art connoisseur, inherited from Lady Richard Wallace, will be disposed of in accordance with the terms of his will, made in 1901, and of the five codicils giving more than half of his property to Lord and Lady

Sackville, who succeeded the Sackville-

West as tenants of the famous country seat, Knole Park, Sevenoaks, Kent.

The jury of the probate court, where the suit has been in progress for eight days, pronounced a verdict today upholding the will. After only ten minutes' consideration they decided that Lady Sackville was guilty of the charges of fraud and undue influence brought against her by members of the Scott family, and cast the burden of the suit, which will be extremely heavy,

owing to the array of eminent counsel engaged, upon the late baronet's relatives, who contested the will.

Received Congratulations.

Lord and Lady Sackville will obtain about $2,500,000 of the $5,000,000 of the testator's property, including some of his magnificent art collections.

Many of their friends among the aristocratic audience assembled in the court offered their congratulations to
