Picked Players Made Close Contest, Tho Lacking in Team Work -National League Scores.

A fine day over head and the prospect seeing a real game of baseball attracted about 2000 paid spectators at 25 cents about 2000 paid spectators at 25 cents each to Diamond Park on the holiday afternoon. They were repaid by a good contest with little to choose between the opposing teams. The Torontos won by 3 to 1, scoring in the second on a hit, base on balis, sacrifice and a liner to centre; another in the fourth on a doubtful single, again by Yale, a sacrince and another bit, and the final in the sixth by a base on balis, stolen base and shortstop's error. The picked team of local artists were blanked up to the eighth, tho the fourth and fifth looked prolific, Ronan saving a tally once when the bases were full, by a quick tag and throw. Miller opened the eighth with a clean double along the eight foul line. Elliott followed with another to left. Frick bluffed the runner to stay on second, when there should have been a run and a second two-bagger. A sacrifice and out scored the only run.

Frick and Urbach of the new men showed up best. White and Toft seem in good shape. They scarcely look fast on the bases. The picked locals lacked team play and pluch hitting. They were without a first baseman. Tho the day was raw, the crewd remained till the last man was cut. The crowd rather favored the locals and there was always vigorous rooting when the Eastern Leaguers were in a hole Four of the twirlers were southpaws, Lee being the only right-hander to work.
