

LUX and the way to use it

Pour boiling or very hot water over the LUX flakes "pure essence of soap."

Whisk into a lather. At once you get the richest, creamiest suds you ever saw, which dissolves dirt without rubbing.

After cooling, stir the clothes about in this heavy lather. Do not rub or twist them. Rinse in two or three relays of water of the same temperature you washed them in.

So thoroughly is LUX dissolved that not a trace remains in the garment to discolor it. LUX won't harm anything that pure water alone will not injure. For silks use lukewarm water.

THERE ARE GIRLS WHO ENDEAVOR TO FOOL THE POLICE

Toronto Has Had Several Cases of Girls Who Have Posed as Victims.

NO TRUTH IN ANY CASE

Police Morality Department Does Not Place Any Faith in Needle Stories.

"You have read or heard, no doubt, of the story of the hypodermic needle used upon young girls?" asked an official of the morality department, city hall.

"Well," he said, "it is all tommyrot—that is, as far as Toronto is concerned. I know of no drug that could be used in the manner described, and less it be a deadly poison, and then you would die. Just this afternoon a girl came here and told us she had been jabbed with a needle in her arm while shopping yesterday in a department store. She showed her arm, where there was a scar, but closer investigation with the magnifying glass revealed the fact that it was caused from vaccination—the skin had never been broken. She told a very straight story. She claimed she had not recovered consciousness until today in the hospital. It took us two hours to get the truth; and found that a well constructed white slave story had been erected as a camouflage! She had to account for a night spent away from home and she resorted to this."

The official stated that during the last year about eight or ten girls had come to him with stories of the same type, and in every instance when sifted were found to be untrue and prepared for the purpose of covering up some other wrongdoing.

"You would be surprised," he said, "how often some types of women resort to this method, and how many good folks believe the story that periodically goes the rounds about the needle jab given in a theatre or crowd."

RECIPES

By Toronto Women

Evidently the women are anxious to do their "bit" in the kitchens of Toronto and will use carrots and onions as much as possible. Today's mail brought many recipes for dishes made from these vegetables. Two have been selected and given herewith. Has any one else some ideas to help the campaign?

Onion Pie.
Make light paste as for biscuits and line a deep pudding dish. Roll paste thin as possible, then take enough onions to fill dish; chop them up fine, boil them about ten minutes with pepper and salt and a little butter; pour about half an hour or until onions are well cooked. This is one of the best onion dishes that ever graced a table. Put the onion mixture in the dish, hot. Would like to hear from some one who tries it.—Mrs. Frank Wilson, Agincourt.

Carrot Salad.
Two cups grated carrots, 2 cups shredded lettuce, 1 cup grated onion; 1-2 cup shredded celery tops; 1 cup mayonnaise; 1 tablespoon chopped olives. Line a bowl with lettuce leaves, pack carrot in centre, with lettuce around it, cover with dressing to which onion has been added, sprinkle with celery tops and garnish with olives cut in halves.

UNWANTED CHILD FINDS A MOTHER

Mrs. Margaret Ross Offers to Care for the Deserted Infant Boy.

NO PLACE FOR BABIES

Value of Children Rising Daily, and Toronto Has No Place for Them.

Yesterday a temporary mother was found in the person of Mrs. Margaret Ross, 59 Louisa street, for the unwanted infant boy left in charge of Mrs. Mary Robertson, 37 Gould street. Mrs. Ross will care for the infant until permanent arrangements can be made.

The quarantined infants' home has placed the police department in a difficult position. No less than three homeless babies are under their care. What to do with these helpless morsels of humanity is a problem the police department is trying to solve. Toronto has made no arrangements for the caring of homeless infants.

Thursday evening at the W.C.T.U. conference Mrs. Gurnett stated in her address that the children must be cared for, now more than ever before, as the price of babies to the empire had gone up since the war started. Looks as if Toronto has not yet grasped the fact that babies have gone up in value.
