a double-play resulted. Merritt was out, pitcher to first.

Outside of the first inning McGinley kept the batters guessing. On the other hand, Moran, while having a lot of speed, was inclined to be wild.

Toronto scored two in the fifth. Frank filed out to Grant, Drennan walked and McGinley sacrificed. Thoney waited for four balls, and on the return from the catcher Grant made a wild throw to second to catch Drennan, who went to third, and Thoney to second. Cannell's bingle down to third base scored Drennan and Thoney.
