In supply to night, Mr. Armstrong (East Lambton) and other Ontario Conservatives urged upon the postmas-ter-general a free rural mail delivery. Mr. Lemieux submitted that the coun-try was too sparsely settled at present for the experiment. "When Canada has twenty million spole, and I am still postmaster-generated by the state of the s people, and I am still postmaster-general, we will have the rural free delivery system," replied the minister. He stated that the free delivery system would be extended to all offices where the gross revenues amounted to $20,000.

of whose wife necessitated the present recess, it was said to night, has communicated to Judge Fitzgerald his expectation of being able to resume his place in the jury box when the case is called on Monday. Both District Attorney Jerome and the lawyers for the design of the second the defence are of the opinion that the trial will then continue.

Anthony Comstock of the Society for the Suppression of Vice, and E. Fellow Jenkins, superintendent and secretary of the Gerry Society, have been subpoenced by the defence, it is reported to-night.

H. C. McPike, of counsel for Thaw, said to-day: "When the trial is resumed next week Dr. Evans will conclude his testimony, and Dr. Wagner will be recalled to tell of his conversations with Thaw-conversations which were ruled out last week. Then Mr-Thaw's wife will finish her story, and his mother will be called as a witness for the first time. Finally, after Mr. Thaw's will has been introduced as evidence, it is probable that the family physicians of the Thaw family will complete their testimony. The alien-ists will be asked a few final questions in order to round out the case, and then, unless something new develops, the defence will probably rest."

Death has again invaded Harry Thaw's environment. Close on the passing away of the wife of Juror Bolton came the announcement to-day of the death last night in a hospital of Michael D. Downey, who for months had been Thaw's night keeper on the second tier of cells in the Tombs, which is known as "Murderers' Row."

A warm friendship had sprung up between the keeper and the accused murderer. When Downey is buried tomorrow a wreath bearing Thaw's card will rest on the casket.
Dr. Josiah Strong, president of the American Institute for Social Service, said to-day that Thaw consulted him more than two years ago about breaking up a "den of vices" in this city, which Thaw told him was protected by a wealthy and influential man. Thaw told him about the place

Jan. 23. when hundreds of the stal-warts of the Liberal party were gathered in Hyman's hall, Mr. Beal and Mr. Sibley announced that when Mr. Hyman returned he would get the greatest reception of his life. Nobody there believed that Mr. Hyman was in such a serious state of health that he could not have sent in a valid resignation. Mr. Hyman wanted to get the credit of resigning and still hold on to his seat.
