

On est prié de remettre au Trésorier l'argent qu'on voudrait laisser à son enfant et de le pourvoir de ports de lettres.

Il ne sera fait aucune déduction pour les absences partielles, à moins que ce ne soit pour cause de maladie prolongée.

Le nom de l'élève devra être écrit sur chaque article de son trousseau.

---

PROSPECTUS:

This house of education, founded in 1848, is placed under the patronage of his Lordship the Bishop of Montreal and the Seminary of St. Sulpice.

It is protected by the Provincial Government.

Its classes are opened on the 1st of September and closed on the 1st of July.

English and French are taught with the same attention.

The courses of studies is of seven years, and embraces articulation and lips Reading, Catechism, Grammar, History, Geography, Arithmetic, Book-keeping, Drawing, Agriculture, &c., &c.

We have offices for printers, book-binders, and shoe-makers.

CONDITIONS.

Boarding and Tuition.	$100.	(School year.)
Bedding.....	$10.	“ “
Washing.....	$10.	“ “

Payables in advance in two terms.

Books, clothing, and medical cares are extra charges.

Parents are invited to deposit with the Treasurer the pocket money for their children, and to provide them with postage stamps.

No deduction will be made for partial absence from the Institution, unless in case of protracted illness.

The name of the pupils should be written on every article of his outfit.