through Scotland.

East Portage Presbyterians are now conducting their Sunday evening services in the evening. Mrs. Meek read an address, expressive of the esteem in which she is held; then followed speeches by Rev. Mr.

LETTER TO LADY ABERDEEN.

Florence Nightingale on the Victoria-ian Order of Nurses.

100 South-street, Park-lane, London, W., May 5, 1898.

Dear Lady Aberdeen.—I do rejoice at the success which has attended your efforts to initiate the plan for establishing trained district nurses in Canada. With great interest I have read the papers you have so kindly sent me. Let me gladly add myself as a witness to the experience here to the great blessings which the trained district nurses have been to the sick poor.

Not the Clothing Store Kind

There are two ways of selling Clothing. One is common. The other unusual. The common method makes clothing to sell and trusts to big newspaper mention and a variety of prize gifts to sell it. The unusual method is to trust to quality and style to make its own reputation without the flaming letters or the petty prize.

This store appeals to everybody who spends a cent for Clothing of any sort. In one way and another we anticipate every possible need of every member of the family. You pay us less than the average because we don't have to make big profits. The strength of our dry goods business comes from skilful treatment, and now the same forces are lifting the Clothing. Sales are big and bound to be bigger with the lift and growth that a fresh management and broad ideas are bringing into it.

The Clothing store has larger interest since the new building is ready for business with its fine entrance on Richmond street.—More room now and better facilities. You can tell how thoroughly in earnest we are by these special values:

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

Princess Theatre.
In response to the many requests which have been pouring into the box office of the Princess Theatre, ever since the production of "The Mandarin," to have this tuneful opera of De Koven & Smitt's repeated, Manager Cummings has finally decided to repeat the opera for the first three nights of next week, and has had a number of new verses prepared, which will be introduced into the popular numbers of the opera. "The Mandarin" has certainly been the biggest hit of the opera season here, and the opera became a favorite immediately upon its first production by DeKoven & Smitt's Company a year ago. The excellent production given by the Cummings Company, which was in many respects equal to the original given here at high prices, is still remembered by those who saw it during the opening week of this company's engagement, and its timely reproduction in present time, the performance of the cast will be the same throughout, with the exception of Mr. West, who replaced Mr.
McDonald, and Mr. Sol Solomon, who replaced Mr. Ben Lodge. This should make a decided improvement in the two characters and the principal members of the company, as well as the chorus and orchestra being now thoroughly familiar with the opera, the performance will go with unusual smoothness and perfection. "The Mandarin" will be presented on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings and Wednesday matinee, and on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matinee. "Ermine" another big success will be repeated.

Corbett's Conqueror Coming.
Bob Fitzsimmons, the champion of the world, will appear at the Toronto Opera House next week. Fitz will be seen in his ballet costume, and will demonstrate in this way why no man living has any business with him at the ring. He will spar four rounds with Sam Kenney, and a very interesting feature of
