STATE OF THE GOVERNMENT

May be Decided To-Night—Final Rhetorical Round Expected.

Yesterday's Debates Evolved No New Points—Clever Speeches for and Against the Hardy Administration—Minister Ross Will Reply for the Government.

It looks as though there might be a division at the Legislature on the address some time to-night. The House sat until 1 o'clock this morning, when Mr. Carleton of Hamilton moved the adjournment of the debate. This, of course, means that he will resume this afternoon. He will probably be followed by the Minister of Education, and this great oratorical duel is expected to form the grand finale of the debate.

It was rumored about the corridors yesterday that Hon. William Hardy would not fight the protest against him in the Kingston election courts. The Opposition were somewhat nonplussed yesterday to observe a little change of tactics on the part of the Government. Mr. Hardy has evidently determined that, if prolongation is to be the order, his followers shall not be a party to it. In accordance with this attitude, the Ministerialists listened to the remarks of the aggressors of three Opposition back-benchers and constituency redeemers, and, Stole like, made no sign that the thrusts had penetrated their calloused political hearts. They sat there in assumed indifference, refusing to be drawn out, for they had read The World.

Resumed Debate.
Mr. W. A. Kelso of South Waterloo talked on the address for over an hour, assailing the Government on every point, from present issues to the surplus. He has the characteristic Dutch phlegm about him, deliberate and determined to a degree that amounted almost to assurance in a new member. He confessed to his extraction, but pleaded that none should be German, Scotch or French, but all Canadians, as in the States, they were all Americans. He made a comprehensive assault on the Liberal policy.

Mr. Kribs sat down and spectators looked across the floor to see someone rise. There were some at the front, however, to hear a further crash of Opposition thumping, and, looking back, beheld Dr. Elisha Jessop of Lincoln on his feet. He was more complacent than the last speaker, but insisted that Mr. Hardy was in full retreat, and refused to accept the Attorney-General's version of his alleged statement about not having men capable of filling the position of Minister of Agriculture.

North Waterloo.
Mr. H. G. Leachon, Conservative, had been the first of his party to represent North Waterloo in the Legislature since Confederation, and he so told the House.

MINES AND STOCKS—Special attention given to Rossland and Ymir Mines.

61 Victoria St., Toronto.

Latest information and prices on:

DUNDEE, KENNETH ("Tamarac").

LERWICK ("Elise").

DUNDEE Ymir.—This property is well known throughout Canada as one of great promise. Having seen the mine, I can speak as to the excellence of the work done, which up to date consists of a shaft sunk to a depth of 280 feet, tunnelling to the extent of 285 feet, and the laying of an 1800 ft. tramway. A concentrator is in course of erection, and a 10-hp. compressor is to be put in. The engineer, who quite recently inspected the mine, is very sanguine as to the future of the "Dunee."

KENNETH (Tamarac, Ymir, B.C.).—This is a property of a free milling nature, much in favor at Rossland. Latest reports are distinctly encouraging.

The assay values average $16 in gold to the ton.

LERWICK (Elise and Lynton).—This company are working the famous "Elise" claim, situated on the north fork of Wild Horse Creek, six miles north of Ymir. B.C. Men are busily engaged in driving in a tunnel to tap the vein. The present length of this is over 300 feet, and it is expected that in a very short time the object of the company will be accomplished.

LERWICK, as, in addition to knowing the merits of the property, I am acquainted with the management, which is all that can be desired.

Having reliable Agents in Rossland and Ymir, I am in a position to supply any correspondent with information regarding British Columbia properties in addition to knowing the position and standing of many myself.

He made another attack, reviewing the failures of the Government, and badgered them with calling off their dogs and stopping the debate. In the course of a good oratorical effort he touched legally upon the constable question.

Evening Session.

Mr. Beatty of Leeds started the discussion in the evening. It was supreme folly, he said, to suppose that in the case of Mr. Gibson the decision of Hamilton would be reversed in the event of another election. The strongest Liberal riding in the province have said they do not want the Minister of Agriculture, in that or any capacity. They approve neither his policy nor his methods. The Government had violated the spirit, if not the letter, of the law by calling the House without a full Cabinet. A suggestion he offered was that, owing to the increasing importance of iron ore, an opportunity was afforded the Government to divert some of the trade to Canada.

"Let a competent man be sent to England to interview the prominent iron makers and iron masters of Great Britain, taking with him samples to show the quality and be able to fully explain what Canada has to offer. It has been said politics is a game, but all games have fixed rules, and it is not fair to change these rules, as is attempted in the present case, after the game has been played."

The Member for East Toronto.

The thread was taken up by Dr. Pyne, who, in paying the usual congratulations to the Speaker, said that Mr. Hardy, taking folios vacant the Government had not offered him one. "It is evident, Mr. Speaker, that you have gone as far as you can go in future you will have to look to us for advancement." [Applause.]

Dr. Pyne said the Government ought to be commended for the manner in which they have handled the matter. He said that the Government had never been questioned for thirty years.

The debate was continued by Mr. Kidd of Carleton and Mr. Hodgins of Middlesex.

It was 12.15 o'clock when Mr. Hodgins had finished.

The Mayor of Hamilton having spoken, Mr. Little of Candover held the floor until 1 o'clock, after which Mr. Carleton of Hamilton moved the adjournment of the debate.

A Carefully Prepared Pill—Much time and attention were expended in the experimenting with the ingredients that enter into the composition of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills before they were brought to the state in which they were first offered to the public. Whatever other pills may be called Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are the result of much expert study, and all persons suffering from dyspepsia or disordered liver and kidneys may confidently accept them as being what they are represented to be.
