New Albany, Ind., May 4.—This city possesses the distinction of having a councilman who refuses to accept his pay. A year ago William Sloemer, member of the Council, made a vigorous fight against increasing the pay of the councilmen from $2 to $6 a meeting. His side lost, and today, when he went to draw his salary for the year, he would not accept the additional $4. He would only take $48 while $144 was due him.
