PROOFS OF REMARKABLE PROGRESS

A Glimpse at Some of the Things That May Be Seen

You will miss something if you don't go hours of 10 a.m. and 10 p.m., to see the grand opening of the Adams Furniture Company in their big, new quarters, City Hall Square, the finest establishment of its kind on the continent.

This is to be a general "house warming," when ail the old customers, with their friends and their friends' friends, or two in looking over the big building, with its immense stock. You won't be asked to buy, in fact, you can't if you want to, since no goods of any description will be sold, but while you are looking over the appointments of the establishment and viewing the handsome display of be treated to a delightful program of music from two of Toronto's finest professional orchestras. Each adult, man or woman, will be presented with a pretty little souvenir in chiaa or celluloid, which will serve to remind him or her of the good-will and welcome extended on this the opening day at the new home of the furniture and housefurnishings you will dians would like to see Col. Sam Hughes the opening day at the new home of the opening day at the new home of the old firm, The Adams Furniture Company. It is not beyond the memory of many to recall the beginning of this business some 20 years ago, when the Adams Company opened shop in their first little store on East Adelaidd-street. Many will iremember how the trade increased and larger premises were secured at 247 Yongestreet. Again the business outgrew its expenses and more commoditions quarters.
